Parish Mission: "To evangelize and share the Gospel, walk with one another on our journey of faith, and draw others into Christ's one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church."

When invited to dine, take the lowest place. Those who humble themselves will be exalted (Luke 14:1, 7-14).

SEVEN BENEFITS OF BEING GENEROUS

The other day I read an interesting article about how many times certain key words show up in the Bible.

- The word “believe,” or “believer,” or “believing” is used 275 times.
- The word “pray,” or “prayer,” or “praying” is used 371 times.
- The word “love,” or “lover,” “loves,” or “loving” is used 714 times.
- The word “giving” or “give” is used 2,162 times.

So where does the Bible put the most emphasis? It's obvious, isn't it? On giving. The Bible is a book about giving. It's not something that's just tacked on to the Christian life. It is the essence of Christian living. Jesus was the ultimate giver.

The Bible says, "Give and it will be given to you for with the measure you use it will be measured back to you" (Luke 6:38). My question is, "If I give, what do I get back?" I get back seven major benefits or blessings.

1. GIVING MAKES ME MORE LIKE GOD. God is a giver. The Bible says, "God so loved the world that He gave His only Son" (John 3:16). God gave everything to us. Everything we have is a gift from God. You can give without loving, but you cannot love without giving. Since God is love, to be like God, you've got to learn to become a giver.

2. GIVING DRAWS ME CLOSER TO GOD. The Bible says, "Where your treasure is, there your heart will be" (Matt. 6:21). Where is your heart this morning? It's wherever your treasure is. If it's in a boat, a house, your business, your clothes, your children, your family, your career, or your investments -- where your treasure is, there your heart is. Every time I give to God, it moves me a little bit closer to Him. It draws me closer to Him because that's where my treasure is. God is much more interested in raising disciples than He is in raising dollars.

3. GIVING IS A VICTORY OVER MATERIALISM. There's a lie that you see on TV that says, "Happiness can be purchased" or the inalienable rights of the Constitution are “Life, Liberty, and the Purchase of Happiness.” If I can just get a certain thing, then I'll be happy. If that were true, then the people with the most would be the most happy, but that's just not true, is it? You make a living by what you get. You make a life by what you give. Giving generously is the only antidote I know to materialism. It breaks the grip of materialism.

4. GIVING STRENGTHENS MY FAITH. God uses dollars to test our faith and to strengthen our faith. God says in Malachi, "Test me, try me, prove me. I dare you! You give and see if I won't bless you more in return" (Malachi 3:10). If you want to prove there is a God, there is only one way it says you can prove God and that's through giving. There is only one argument for God in the Bible. It says, "You give and see if He won't bless you back. God says, "I dare you! Test Me in this. See if I won't throw open the floodgates of heaven so much that you won't have enough room to bear it." There are lots of promises in the Bible and there are more promises regarding giving than anything else in the Bible. With every promise there's a premise. God says, You give and I'll give to you. We often say, "God, you bless me and then I'll give." God says, "No, you prime the pump. You first." Why? Because that requires faith. Giving tests my faith and strengthens it.

5. GIVING IS AN INVESTMENT FOR ETERNITY. You can't take it with you. Has anybody ever seen a hearse pulling a U-haul? But you can send it on ahead. You send it on ahead by investing it in people who are going there. Every time you give it is an eternal investment. Jesus said, Store up treasures in heaven. How do you do that? 1 Timothy tells us, "Give happily to those in need and always be ready to share whatever God has given you. By doing this you will be storing up real treasure for yourselves in heaven. It is the only safe investment for eternity" (1 Tim. 6:18-19). It's a protected investment and it gets great rates.

6. GIVING BLESSES ME IN RETURN. I always get more out of it than what I give. Proverbs 22:9 "A generous man will himself be blessed." Psalm 112:5-6 "Good will come to him who is generous and a righteous man will be remembered forever." What do you want to be remembered for? Calvin Coolidge said, "No man is ever honored for what he received in life. He's only honored for what he gave." We're not honored for what we get out of life. A lot of people amass a big fortune. People are honored for what they give. "A generous man will prosper. He who refreshes others will himself be refreshed" (Proverbs 11:25). Have you learned this secret? Whatever you give out is what you're going to get back in life?

Have you learned that when you give out criticism what your are going to get back is criticism? If you give out gossip, you're going to get back gossip about you. But if you give out encouragement, you're going to get encouragement back. It is a law of life that we sow and we reap. And we reap what we sow. The more we give away, the more we get back in blessings.

7. GIVING MAKES ME HAPPY. It is the source of joy. The Bible says, "There is more happiness in giving than in receiving" (Acts 20:35). God has taught me to be a giver. It's our nature to be selfish. God is teaching us to be a giver because it feels so good to give. People who don't know that are people who have never done it. Nobody gives until it hurts. They give because it feels good, because it's the source of joy. God wants us to enjoy being a generous person. That happiest people in life are givers. There are only two types of people in life: takers and givers. The happiest people in life are people that are generous with their lives. Jesus said, "Lose your life to find it. Give it away." The word miserable comes from the root word "miser". The more I hold on to what I've got, the more miserable I become. It's the person who is generous in his lifestyle that is happy. The great psychologist, Karl Menninger, once said, "Giving is a good criterion of mental health. Generous people are rarely mentally ill."

The Five First Saturday Devotion — September 2nd is First Saturday

On July 13, 1917 at the third apparition at Fatima, Our Lady told the three children: “I promise to assist at the hour of death, with the graces necessary for salvation, all those who, on the First Saturday of 5 consecutive months, shall confess, receive Holy Communion recite 5 decades of the rosary, and keep me company for 15 minutes while meditating on (15) 20 mysteries, of the rosary, with intention of making reparation to me.” You may attend the 8:30 am and/or 5pm Mass on Saturday but you must attend two Masses to fulfill your Sunday obligation. *Confession within 8 days before or after First Saturday. At that time we had 3 mysteries of the rosary, but in 2002 Saint John Paul II added the Luminous Mysteries. *To help you understand “making reparation”, read the handout on the chapel table under her picture.

Are You Interested in the Catholic Faith?
In celebrating this month of Our Lady’s final journey to God in her glorious Assumption, let us ask her motherly intercession to draw souls to the Sacred Heart of her Son. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a journey too — of conversion to God and what he intends for us. RCIA is the process by which persons who were never baptized, or were baptized in another Christian tradition, become members of the Church, a people on pilgrimage to our Heavenly Father. For some that have already been baptized in the Catholic faith but have not received First Communion or Confirmation, they will make a journey to completion in the faith. Please contact Julia Dobrucki at 805-915-4625 for more information about RCIA.

EVENING BIBLE AND FAITH STUDY
Matthew: The King and His Kingdom
by Jeff Cavins and Sarah Christmyer

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom is an exciting study that explores the life and mission of Jesus as recorded in the Gospel. Matthew demonstrates how the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament are fulfilled in Christ, who establishes a New Law and inaugurates the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. Participants will see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who relives the life and struggles of Israel to become the faithful and victorious King. Set in the rich context of Jesus' Jewish culture, this study will help participants understand who Jesus is and what his life and teachings mean for us today. Matthew is an ideal follow-up study to the basic narrative of Scripture taught in The Bible Timeline study.

We will meet every Thursday starting Sept. 8 at 7:00pm in Room 8. For more information please contact:
Dr. Neil Fanning at (805) 217-4300.

Today: Mission Appeal Collection
The Schoenstatt Fathers are part of the International Schoenstatt Movement. Schoenstatt is a renewal movement founded by Father Joseph Kentenich in 1914 in Germany. Several religious and lay communities are part of the Movement. The Schoenstatt Fathers being the youngest with over 300 members work in all continents. Our task is to render priestly service to the movement and to build it up.

The Indian Schoenstatt Fathers are now in the position to develop several projects to realize their charism within the demands of the country. They have 55 Indian Fathers and 30 seminarians in the different stages of formation. The Schoenstatt Fathers in India aim at developing centers of spiritual renewal, children's villages for deserted and neglected children predominantly girls, and schools for qualified catholic character formation and education. Their tutoring centers help stop school dropouts. Their home for children provides poor children the facility of lodging and quality education. The Schoenstatt Fathers work in parishes and schools; promote faith formation of the youth and families and help reach out the poor and needy participating in the evangelization process of the Church in India. For their social projects and the formation of the seminarians, the Schoenstatt Fathers of India appeal to your solidarity and ask for your generous support.

Fr. Sherin Antony, a Schoenstatt Father from India will speak in all Holy Masses about their mission activities in India.

HUMILDAD

¿Has estado alguna vez con un grupo de personas –quizás en un crucero, en una reunión social, o en la iglesia – y descubres que has estado hablando con un autor muy conocido, un alto ejecutivo de una empresa poderosa, un gran intelectual o una figura política? Tu primer pensamiento es que ojalá no hayas dicho nada embarazoso, pero el segundo es tu asombro al notar que se comporten como una persona “normal”. ¿Qué es lo que hace a una persona “normal”? Las lecturas de hoy nos dan una pista cuando ponen de relieve la importancia de la humildad.

Es tan difícil no decirle a la primera persona que nos escuche lo ocupados que estamos, lo mucho que trabajamos, cuánto dinero donamos y cuán importantes son nuestros títulos en el trabajo. Pensamos que estas distinciones tienen influencia en las personas, y si no se lo decimos, ¿cómo van a saberlo? Pero si nuestras acciones demuestran nuestros valores, la gente reconocerá lo que valemos, por sí solas. Las palabras de Jesús nos muestran que es mucho mejor dejar que los demás reconozcan nuestros méritos que aparearnos porque alguien no los reconoce.

¿Has estado alguna vez con un grupo de personas –quizás en un crucero, en una reunión social, o en la iglesia – y descubres que has estado hablando con un autor muy conocido, un alto ejecutivo de una empresa poderosa, un gran intelectual o una figura política? Tu primer pensamiento es que ojalá no hayas dicho nada embarazoso, pero el segundo es tu asombro al notar que se comporten como una persona “normal”. ¿Qué es lo que hace a una persona “normal”? Las lecturas de hoy nos dan una pista cuando ponen de relieve la importancia de la humildad.

Es tan difícil no decirle a la primera persona que nos escuche lo ocupados que estamos, lo mucho que trabajamos, cuánto dinero donamos y cuán importantes son nuestros títulos en el trabajo. Pensamos que estas distinciones tienen influencia en las personas, y si no se lo decimos, ¿cómo van a saberlo? Pero si nuestras acciones demuestran nuestros valores, la gente reconocerá lo que valemos, por sí solas. Las palabras de Jesús nos muestran que es mucho mejor dejar que los demás reconozcan nuestros méritos que aparearnos porque alguien no los reconoce.

Once again our festival and auction will feature gourmet foods from many restaurants. We will serve fine wine from California wineries; beer from some well-known breweries; desserts from the finest bakeries around. During your dinner you will be entertained by one of America's most requested and loved “Frank Sinatra” impersonators Vaughn Suponatime. As a younger Frank Sinatra look alike and a natural Sinatra sound alike, Vaughn's celebrity tribute show spans all through the musical career of "The Chairman of the board" from the Big Band days through the Rat Pack nights and beyond. After the dinner and returning this year as our headliner will be a rousing concert and dancing provided by the always very popular “Ronny & The Classics” who will once again be playing all your favorite oldies from the 50's through 80's.
