Parish Mission: "To evangelize and share the Gospel, walk with one another on our journey of faith, and draw others into Christ's one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church."

What will you give back to God from the blessings you have received?

This year the Dream Cuisine will take place on Sunday, October 9th. Volunteers will be needed for most of the day. Training will be provided on Saturday, October 1st at 12 noon. If interested in helping please sign up at http://www.svdchelp.com. For more information please contact Adam Cross at (805) 526-8181.

One of the most amazing, incredible, all encompassing promises in the Bible is Philippians 4:19. "God will meet all your needs according to His glorious riches in Christ Jesus." This verse is so packed! This is God's guarantee regarding your finances.

First it says, "God will meet..." It doesn't say, "He might meet your needs" it says "He will". It's a fact. He's staking His character, His reputation on it. "I will meet your needs."

Then it says, "God will meet all..." It doesn't say "I'll meet some of your needs." God says all, everything.

All what? "All your needs." It doesn't say "I'll meet all your greeds." There's a big difference between needs and wants. As a parent, do you give your kids everything they want? I hope you don't because you love them. And your heavenly Father loves you. He's not going to give you everything you want; you'd be spoiled to death.

But it says, I will meet all your needs "according to His wealth." His riches. It's not based on my assets, thank God. It's based on what God has and He doesn't run out of resources.

He says "... for you in Christ Jesus." This is a promise only for believers, for those who are in Christ Jesus. But He says, "If you're one of My children, in My family, I promise to meet all your needs."

Then how come you have financial needs. How come I know people who are believers who have financial needs? Did God fail? Did He lie? Exaggerate? No.

With every promise there is a premise or conditions or requirements. God says, "I'll do my part and you do your part. If you meet these conditions then I guarantee that I will meet all your financial needs." That's a pretty big promise. The guarantee is you do these things and you'll never have to worry about finances again. That's exactly what God says.

God has promised to meet all my financial needs....if I fulfill five conditions:

1. If I ask for His help. James 4:2 "You do not have because you do not ask God."
That's pretty clear. God is waiting for you to ask. God never shuts His storehouse until you shut your mouth. He wants to help. But the problem is, we often don't ever ask. Before you pay for it, pray for it. Stop and ask God.

2. If I learn to be content. Contentment means my happiness is not dependent upon circumstances. Most people get caught into "when" and "then" thinking -- "When I get such and such, then I'll be happy." "When I get to a certain level economically... When I get a certain job... When I can retire... then I'll be happy. When I get the house paid off... When I get the bills paid off... then!" God says "No, once you get there you'll always want something else. You always want more." Somebody asked Howard Hughes, "How much does it take to make a man happy?" He said, "Just a little more." God says I want you to learn contentment. It's saying, My happiness is dependent upon the Lord not on my circumstances in life. St. Paul learned contentment. Philippians 4:12 "I know how to live on almost nothing or with everything. I've learned the secret of contentment in every situation." Contentment is something you have to learn. It's not something that comes naturally. It's not natural for us to be content. By our nature, we are naturally discontent.

3. If I practice giving in faith. 2 Corinthians 9 "Remember this, whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. And whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each one should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion for God loves a cheerful giver." This is the principle of Sowing and Reaping. This principle is the law of the universe and it applies to every area of your life. If I sow criticism, I'm going to reap criticism. If I sow kindness, I'm going to reap kindness. If I sow generosity, it's going to come back to me and I'm going to reap generosity. Whatever you need more of, you give away. "Give and it will be given to you." Give the first part of the income to the Lord and watch Him bless it.

4. If I maintain my integrity. Sometimes the pressure to get ahead or just the pressure to keep up is so overwhelming that we, even as believers, are often tempted to compromise our ethics. We are tempted to do a little shading of the truth in order to make a buck. Maybe we overvalue something or maybe we just don't tell somebody what's wrong with it when we're selling it to them or maybe we take a deduction on the taxes that really isn't there. Or maybe we just don't tell the truth in a situation. God doesn't bless dishonesty. If I maintain my integrity, God says, "I will assume responsibility for all your financial needs. Proverbs 16:11: "The Lord demands fairness in every business deal".

5. If I trust Him completely with my life. Matthew 6:33 "Your heavenly Father already knows perfectly well what you need and he will give it to you if you give him first place in your life and live as he wants you to." It says your heavenly Father already knows what you need. He's just waiting for you to ask. He will provide. Does God take care of little birds? They don't worry. Nothing in all creation worries except human beings. Do those birds worry? No. Does this plant worry? No. The only thing in all creation that worries are human beings. Everything else trusts the heavenly Father and creator to care for their needs. The Bible says if God takes care of the birds, don't you think He'll take care of you if you trust Him. That's the issue. That's the bottom line there. How much do you trust God? If you're serious about being set free from financial fears, it's your choice. But you must choose to do what God has clearly told us to do. He's laid it out. He said, "I will do this -- the promise -- if you will obey the premise."

The Five First Saturday Devotion
October 1st
On July 13, 1917 at the third apparition at Fatima, Our Lady told the three children: "I promise to assist at the hour of death, with the graces necessary for salvation, all those who, on the First Saturday of 5 consecutive months, shall confess, receive Holy Communion recite 5 decades of the rosary, and keep me company for 15 minutes while meditating on (15) 20 mysteries, of the rosary, with intention of making reparation to me." You may attend the 8:30 am and/or 5pm Mass on Saturday but you must attend two Masses to fulfill your Sunday obligation.

*Confession within 8 days before or after First Saturday.
At that time we had 3 mysteries of the Luminous Mysteries.

When our Blessed Mother appeared to Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta in Fatima on May 13, 1915, she taught them this prayer: “O Most Holy Trinity, I adore Thee; my God, my God, I love Thee in the Most Blessed Sacrament.”

When you receive communion, you may want to recite it; or for the year of Mercy, you might say, “Jesus, I trust in you”. He is listening.

ANGER MANAGEMENT MINISTRY
Monthly Anger Management Meetings from 7:30pm to 9:00pm
Every FIRST and THIRD Monday of the month.
by Dr. Bennett Annan
Anger Management Ministry is a Christ-centered group that provides an Anger Management Program intended to manage and control our anger in a Christ-like manner. The St. Rose of Lima Anger Management Meetings are held on the first and third Monday of each month, in Room 11 at St. Rose of Lima School from 7:30—9:00pm. The goal of these meetings is to help you track the specific triggers in your own life that often set you off. The topics of the Anger Management Ministry are presented in meetings in a 13 week cycle. If you miss a meeting, you will have the opportunity to make it up in the next cycle, when the topics are repeated. The meetings are led by Dr. Bennett Annan, a National Anger Management Association Certified Anger Management Specialist. For more information please contact Wally Conway wally.conway@century21.com or Jean Jenners: josephm34@sbcglobal.net

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom
by Jeff Cavins and Sarah Christmyer

Matthew: The King and His Kingdom is an exciting study that explores the life and mission of Jesus as recorded in the Gospel. Matthew demonstrates how the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament are fulfilled in Christ, who establishes a New Law and inaugurates the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. We will meet every Thursday at 7:00pm in Room 8.

For more information please contact: Dr. Neil Fanning at (805) 217-4300.

LECTORS MINISTRY

NEW LECTORS

Those who have a love for sacred scripture and who can speak clearly, with a strong and confident presence in front of God’s people, are encouraged to pray about becoming lectors. Active recruitment is not the norm for this ministry, but may occur from time to time through announcements in the bulletin and at the end of Mass. Interested people may contact Tony Delgado for information and to schedule a time for formation at idelgado@roadrunner.com or you may call the rectory at (805) 526-1732, or Tony at 805-444-2163, please leave your name and your phone number. Thank you.

Next Sunday, Oct. 2nd we will have the blessing of animals in honor of the feast St. Francis of Assisi at 3:00pm in the north parking lot. Please bring your pets for a special blessing.

Did you know?

Bystander engagement is critical to combat child abuse

There are far too many cases in which a child is too scared to report abuse, and the adults around him or her do not understand the signs of abuse or too afraid to speak up. Bystanders have more power than they know, especially when it comes to reporting abuse and protecting children. Young adults don’t always have the opportunity or the courage to speak up for themselves, and the adults around them have a duty to help out when they can. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Bystander Engagement – Primary Prevention of a Different Sort,” email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call 213-637-7227.

¿Sabia Usted?

El involucramiento de testigos es importante para combatir el abuso infantil

Hay demasiados casos en los que un niño está tan asustado/a para reportar abuso, y los adultos a su alrededor no entienden las señales de abuso o tienen mucho temor de hablar. Los espectadores tienen más poder de lo que ellos mismos creen, especialmente cuando se trata de reportar abuso y proteger a los niños. Los adultos jóvenes no siempre tienen la oportunidad o la valentía de hablar por sí mismos, y los adultos a su alrededor tienen la obligación de ayudar cuando puedan. Para una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “Bystander Engagement – Primary Prevention of a Different Sort” (Involucramiento de espectadores, prevención primaria de distinto tipo) envíe un correo electrónico a bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508.

Dear Fr. Shea & Parishioners

Several members of the Simi Valley Police Dept. attended the Annual Blue Mass held by St. Rose of Lima. This year, it held special meaning, as it was on Sunday, Sept. 11, 2016, the 15th anniversary of the 9/11 terror attacks. Police Officers, along with all first responders, risk their lives in the name of public safety, and on that infamous day, hundreds of first responders made the ultimate sacrifice. We recognize that we are extremely blessed to receive the prayers of our community. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and your parishioners for your unwavering support. We are so grateful and truly appreciate you honoring the men and women of the Simi Valley Police Department.

Sincerely,

Mitch McCann
Chief of Police
HISTORIA DEL SEÑOR DE LOS MILAGROS, PATRÓN DE LIMA PERÚ

En 1650, en el barrio de Pachacamilla, de la ciudad de Lima, Perú unos negros esclavos, traídos por los Españoles, construyeron una tosca Ramada, donde realizaban sus reuniones y uno de los esclavos pintó la imagen de Cristo sobre un tosco muro de adobe para cantarle y orar.

Hoy, después de tres siglos, la figura se conserva intacta. A partir de Septiembre de 1715, el Señor de los Milagros es venerado como Patrón de la ciudad de Lima. En 1771, se le rindió un gran homenaje al inaugurar la iglesia que hoy es de las Nazarenas. Lima sufrió 3 terribles terremotos, en 1655, 1687 y 1746, este último dejó prácticamente la ciudad de Lima y Pachacamilla muy afectada, la destrucción fue general, excepto el pequeño recinto de la Capilla del Santo Cristo de los Milagros que nuevamente desafiando todas las fuerzas de la NATURALEZA, permaneció de pie.

Muchos son los milagros obtenidos por medio de esta Santa Imagen, el primero, la conservación de la imagen a pesar de la fragilidad del muro donde estaba pintada y lo abandonado del lugar en que se hallaba, los terremotos, etc. Luego el fallido intento de las autoridades para borrarla del muro y evitar que le siguieran rindiendo culto.

Después la curación del primer Mayordomo Español y muchísimos más a través del tiempo atribuidas al Señor de los Milagros. La procesión es la más multitudinaria que se realiza en el mundo. El Santo Cristo también congera a los peruanos en Los Ángeles, Nueva York, Miami, así como también en Yamato – Japón y otros lugares. La imagen del Cristo de Pachacamilla se custodia en el templo de las Nazarenas, en Lima, Perú, y sale en procesión durante el mes de Octubre. Acá en Los Ángeles, son varias las ciudades que celebran la misa y procesión del Señor de los Milagros en este mes de Octubre. La primera iglesia que inicio esta festividad es la de Nuestra Señora Reina de los Ángeles (La Placita Olvera) por ya 28 años consecutivos.
