Occasionally the Celebrant may change.
Dear friends,

Three years ago, there was a great movie titled Gimme Shelter. This movie is based on a true story about a 16-year old teenager named Agnes, who prefers to be called by her nickname, “Apple.” Apple has never had an easy life. When the movie begins, Apple is living in the inner city with her drug-addicted, emotionally unstable mother who only wants Agnes around for the welfare money Apple provides. Apple has been in and out of foster care for years, and was sexually abused in one of them by the father of the family.

One day, Apple decides to run away and go in search of her absentee father, whom she discovers is now a wealthy Wall Street broker with a family. Because of her scruffy appearance and abrasive personality, Apple gets a pretty cold reception from her dad—and an even colder reception from his wife. But her father agrees to take her in. Soon after, Apple discovers that she is pregnant. Her dad and new stepmom’s solution to this “problem” is simple and all too typical of people in the modern world. They tell Apple that she should have an abortion. Apple, to her credit, dashes out the front door of the abortion clinic that her stepmom takes her to—and runs away once again in order to save the life of her unborn child.

Apple ends up back on the streets for awhile, sleeping in unlocked cars, and eating out of dumpsters to survive. When a pimp ties to rape her, Agnes jumps into his car, speeds away and ends up crashing the car. When Apple awakens in the hospital, she finds a kindly priest waiting to speak with her. After gaining her trust, this priest arranges for Apple to stay in a home for pregnant teenage girls. This shelter is run by a former homeless woman named Kathy DiFiore who began taking pregnant teenage girls into her home back in 1981. By the way, Kathy now operates 3 mothers’ and babies’ shelters in New Jersey, giving love and hope to women like Apple. Apple’s mother goes to the shelter in an attempt to take Apple home. But Kathy, the shelter’s director, informs Apple’s mother that Apple will be staying there, and forces Apple’s mother to leave after she gets violent.

Apple bonds with the other girls at the shelter, beginning to open up and trust them. She gives birth to a baby girl and names her Hope. Apple’s father comes to visit and the two reconcile. Her father offers to let Apple and Hope come live with him, but as they're leaving Apple realizes she's already made a home for herself at the shelter and decides to stay.

Gimme Shelter is a powerful, beautiful movie. I mention it today because of what the priest and Kathy DiFiore did for Apple. I’m sure that they had no idea what their simple acts of goodness would mean to save the life of a young woman and her baby. They did those acts because of their faith in Jesus and their love for Jesus. They had taken to heart the words of Jesus about being a “light” for others—the kind of light that Jesus tells us in our Gospel today that all of us MUST be.

We don’t have to do dramatic things to be salt to the earth that brings a new flavor and enhances the quality of life, or to be a light to the world that gives guidance and hope to people. Like the priest and Kathy DiFiori shows us: it’s the simple acts of kindness and generosity that make all the difference.

Today’s Gospel message is why the Archdiocese of Los Angeles chose this Sunday as Announcement Sunday for our annual Together in Mission Campaign. This campaign gives each one of us an opportunity to be the light of Christ for the most needy people in our Archdiocese by doing a simple act of kindness and generosity. Appropriately, the theme of this year’s campaign, “Be The Light of Christ,” is taken from today’s Gospel.

For those who may be new to our parish and the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, the Archdiocese established the Together In Mission Campaign 25 years ago to help the 38 very poor parishes and 48 very poor schools that desperately need assistance each year. The priests, Religious and Lay who dedicate themselves to serving in the poorest areas of the Archdiocese depend upon the kindness and generosity of the other parishes of the Archdiocese that have more resources.

To fund this campaign, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles assesses or taxes each parish. Just as God asks each one of us to tithe 10% of our income to God and the local Church, so each parish is asked to tithe 10% of its ordinary income to this campaign. This year, our parish’s assessed goal is $77,200.

So, during this upcoming week, I ask each family or single person to take the time and reflect about how much you can commit to donating to the Together In Mission Campaign. Then, next Sunday, each one of us will have the opportunity to make a commitment pledge to the campaign that you can pay over the next five months.

Gimme Shelter is a beautiful movie that highlights what small acts of kindness—like those of the priest and Kathy DiFiore—can do to change people’s lives. I’m sure that they had no idea what their acts of goodness would mean to save the life of a young woman and her baby. They did those acts because of their faith in Jesus and their love for Jesus. They took to heart what Jesus said to His disciples about being a “light” for others. I pray that each of us also will be that light as we participate in the Together in Mission Campaign next Sunday. May God bless you.

Yours in Christ,

_Fr. Joseph Shea_

Reporting abuse is the right thing to do

Child abuse can happen anywhere, even in the home, and for families placed in this horrible situation, reporting abuse can be very difficult, but it is critical to do so in order to protect children. Adults must first act to stop the abuse by being alert to warning signs. If discovered, report abuse to the proper authorities. For more information on how to report abuse, request a copy of the VIRTUS© article “When the Right Choice is Difficult” by emailing jvienne@la-archdiocese.org or calling (213) 637-7227.

¿Sabia Usted?

Reportar el abuso es lo correcto

El abuso infantil puede ocurrir en cualquier lugar, incluso en el hogar, y para las familias ubicadas en esta situación horrible, reportar abuso puede ser muy difícil, pero es fundamental hacerlo para proteger a los niños. Los adultos deben primero actuar para detener el abuso estando alerta a señales de advertencia. Si se descubre el abuso, denuncie el abuso a las autoridades competentes. Para obtener más información sobre cómo denunciar un abuso, solicite una copia del artículo de VIRTUS © “When the Right Choice is Difficult” (Cuando la elección correcta es difícil) enviando un correo electrónico a bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llamando al (213) 637-7508.
MI PEQUEÑA LUZ

Cuando éramos niños cantábamos efusivamente la canción Mi pequeña luz (This Little Light of Mine). La letra de la canción, desde luego, está basada en el Evangelio de hoy, en este estamos llamados como discípulos a ser la sal y la luz del mundo. Los niños no tienen dificultad para compartir su fe; solo es cuando crecemos que preferimos esconder nuestra luz bajo un tazón porque nuestra cultura tiende a no enfatizar el discipulado. El mensaje en las lecturas de esta semana es claro: para poder dar gloria a Dios por medio del discipulado, debemos mostrar la luz de Cristo en nuestras palabras y obras. No es algo fácil para adultos inhibidos. A menudo podemos pensar en la sal y la luz en términos de lo que hacemos por los demás, pero puede ser tan importante como el no hacer nada, ya sea como enojarse con un desconocido en la carretera o decir una broma ofensiva.
