The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday! Let’s prepare for this great Feast!

Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a very special day when “all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened.” (Diary 699) Jesus promised that “The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.” (Diary 699) He went on to say “I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls on the Feast of My Mercy.” (Diary 1109). This is the Plenary Indulgence of this great Feast of Mercy “Divine Mercy Sunday”. All who go to confession, remain completely free sin, receive the Holy Eucharist, and offer prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father within the 20 day period surrounding Divine Mercy Sunday may obtain the Plenary Indulgence for themselves or a deceased loved one in purgatory. We want you to benefit fully from these promises, and we also want you to notify all of your family and friends about them too and urge them to avail themselves of these great graces! Our Lord said “I want the image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish”. (Diary 341, 48) Please take the time to visit with the Image of The Divine Mercy and venerate Jesus.

History of The Divine Mercy

In Poland in July of 1924, Helena Kowalska sees a vision of the scourged Christ who calls her to religious life. She is accepted by the Congregation of Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Warsaw in August 1925, receives her habit and religious name Maria Faustina. In 1931, Sister Faustina has a vision of Jesus who tells her to paint His image. She perseveres through illness and ridicule, but directed by her spiritual director (Father Michael Sopocko) begins to write her Diary to describe Our Lord’s message of The Divine Mercy and succeeds in having the image of The Divine Mercy painted. In 1935, The Divine Mercy image is publically venerated in Vilnius for the conclusion of the Jubilee Year of Redemption. Sister Faustina bears the cross of her illness, makes her final confession and dies on October 5, 1938. Father Joseph Jarzebowski, MIC, brings the Divine Mercy devotion to the United States in 1941 and the Congregations of Marians of the Immaculate Conception begin to spread the message of The Divine Mercy. Blessed Faustina is canonized in Rome by Pope John Paul II on the second Sunday of Easter in April of 2000, and Divine Mercy Sunday is proclaimed to be celebrated by the universal church. Blessed John Paul II is canonized by Pope Francis in Rome on Divine Mercy Sunday in 2014.
