Dear friends,

On this Sunday, I would like to continue the story of Our Lady of Fatima. But, before I do, I would like to personally congratulate Deacon Terry Reibenspies and his lovely wife Dottie as Deacon Terry celebrates his 40th anniversary of Diaconate ordination. We have been so blessed to have Terry and Dottie ministering here at St. Rose of Lima. Please take the opportunity to congratulate and thank Deacon Terry. He will be celebrating the 9:00 a.m. Sunday Mass and we will have a reception to follow.

Now let me continue from last week, the amazing story of Our Lady of Fatima...

The Fourth Apparition

On August 13, there was a large crowd assembled at the apparition site, but the children were prevented from attending at the request of the Mayor of Vila Nove de Ourem, Arturo Santos. In spite of intense interrogations, the children held their ground and refused to reveal the Secret, despite temptations of money and threats of painful deaths.

On August 19, the children saw Mary who said, "Go again to the Cova da Iria on the 13th and continue to say the Rosary every day." Mary also said she would perform a miracle so that all would believe, but it would not be as grand as planned because the civil authorities had illegally kidnapped and interrogated the children.

Looking very sad, Mary added, Pray, pray very much, and make sacrifices for sinners; for many souls go to hell, because there are none to sacrifice themselves and pray for them. "With that she rose into the air and disappeared to the east.

The Fifth Apparition

On September 13, a very large crowd had gathered. Again, after the flash of light, Mary appeared to the children and said, "Continue to pray the Rosary in order to obtain the end of the war. In October Our Lord will come, as well as Our Lady of Dolors and Our Lady of Carmel. Saint Joseph will appear with the Child Jesus to bless the world. God is pleased with your sacrifices. He does not want you to sleep with the rope on, but only to wear it during the daytime."

Lucia spoke to Mary on behalf of people who had asked for cures and Mary responded, "Yes, I will cure some, but not others. In October I will perform a miracle so that all may believe." With that she rose, moved to the east, and disappeared.

The Sixth and Final Public Apparition

On October 13, 1917, a crowd estimated at about 70,000 or more found their way to the Cova da Iria because of reports that a great miracle would take place. The children had to be guided to the holm oak tree because of the converging crowds. They saw the flash of light and Mary appeared before them. Lucia asked what she wanted and she responded, "I want to tell you that a chapel is to be built here in my honor. I am the Lady of the Rosary. Continue always to pray the Rosary every day. The war is going to end, and the soldiers will soon return to their homes."

As before, Lucia told the Blessed Mother the petitions people had requested of her, to which She responded, "Some, yes; others, no. People must amend their lives and ask pardon for their sins." Then she grew sadder and said, "They must not offend Our Lord any more, for He is already too much offended." Lucia then asked, "Do you want anything more?" to which Mary responded, "Nothing more."

Rising into the air and opening her hands towards the sun, she pointed towards the sun with light emanating from Her hands. Later, Lucia did not remember shouting, "There she goes! There she goes!" At the same time, the clouds parted and the sun appeared as a dull grey disk, pale as the moon.

To the left of the sun, the children saw Saint Joseph from the chest up, holding the Child Jesus. Together they made the Sign of the Cross three times over the world. To the right of the sun, Our Lady was dressed in the blue and white robes of Our Lady of the Rosary. Lucia was given the privilege of seeing Our Lord dressed in red as the Divine Redeemer, from the chest up, blessing the world. Beside Him stood Our Lady dressed now in the purple robes of Our Lady of Sorrows. Finally, She appeared clothed in the simple brown robes of Mount Carmel.

The Miracle of the Sun

As the crowd watched, they did not see all the visions to which the children were favored, but they were able to gaze directly at the sun as it faded and glowed in different ways. It gave off amazing shafts of colorful light in various directions as it appeared to spin and dance. Suddenly, it appeared to zig-zag downward, hurtling toward the people. Many screamed out in terror, many begging for mercy, others praying the Act of Contrition. As suddenly as it had appeared to be falling toward them, the sun swerved back into its orbit and took its normal place. The rain had stopped and everything, including the muddy ground, was dry. The promised miracle had indeed occurred as promised. People in the crowd stare in awe at the sun after the miracle. Notice how dry everything appears, in spite of all the rain falling just minutes before.

Interesting Facts

Our Holy Mother had told the children that the two younger ones would be in heaven soon. True to Her word, Francisco died on April 4, 1919 at age 11, and Jacinta died on February 20, 1920 at age 9. Lucia entered the Dorothean convent to learn to read and write as instructed by Our Lady, and later became a Carmelite nun. She died at age 97 in the year 2005.

Before she died, little Jacinta revealed little-known but remarkable statements made by Our Lady. Here are just some of them: More souls go to hell because of sins of the flesh than for any other reason. Certain fashions will be introduced that will offend Our Lord very much. Many marriages are not good; they do not please Our Lord and are not of God. Priests must be pure, very pure.

Private Apparitions and Messages to Lucia

On December 10, 1925, in her cell at the convent in Pontevedra, Spain, Sister Lucia saw an apparition of Mary with the Child Jesus and a heart encircled with thorns. Mary told Lucia, See, my daughter, My heart surrounded by thorns which ungrateful men pierce at every moment by their blasphemies and ingratitude.” Mary instructed that she would assist at the hour of their death with all the graces necessary for the salvation of their souls, all those who, on the first Saturday for five consecutive months, make a good confession, receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the rosary, keep Her company by meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the rosary, all with the intention of making reparation for the sins committed against Her Immaculate Heart.

On June 13, 1929, Sister Lucia saw another apparition while alone in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the convent chapel at Tuy. She was given an amazing understanding of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament with a vision of the representation of the Holy Trinity. As Lucia tells it, “I had sought and obtained permission from my superiors and confessor to make a Holy Hour from the eleven o’clock until midnight, every Thursday to Friday night. Being alone one night, I knelt near the altar rails in the middle of the chapel and, prostrate, I prayed the prayers of the Angel. Feeling tired, I then stood up and continued to say the prayers with my arms in the form of a cross. The only light was that of the sanctuary lamp. Suddenly the whole chapel was illumined by a supernatural light, and above the altar appeared a cross of light, reaching to the ceiling. In a brighter light on the upper part of the cross, could be seen the face of a man and his body as far as the waist; upon his breast was a dove of light; nailed to the cross was the body of another man. A little below the waist, I could see a chalice and a large host suspended in the air, on to which drops of blood were falling from the face of Jesus Crucified and from the wound in His side. These drops ran down on the host and fell into the chalice. Beneath the right arm of the cross was Our Lady and in her hand was her Immaculate Heart. Under the left arm of the cross, large letters, as if crystal clear water which ran down upon the altar, formed these words, Grace and Mercy. I understood that it was the Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity which was shown to me, and I received lights about this mystery which I am not permitted to reveal.”

The Fulfillment Begins

Our Lady then said to me: The moment has come in which God asks the Holy Father, in union with all the Bishops of the world, to make the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart, promising to save it by this means. There are so many souls whom the justice of God condemns for sins committed against me, that I have come to ask reparation: sacrifice yourself for this intention and pray.” The Fatima apparitions were approved by the Church in 1930. On January 25, 1938, a strange light filled the skies of northern Europe. Scientists described it as a particularly brilliant display of the Aurora Borealis, but Sister Lucia, now age 31, knew it was the flight illumined by an unknown light, of which Mary had spoken in the July 13, 1917 apparition. Mary had said, “Know that this is the great sign given you by God that he is about to punish the world for its crimes, by means of war, famine, and persecutions of the Church and of the Holy Father.” The Second World War began almost 18 months later, on September 1, 1939 when Germany invaded Poland. Interestingly, Russia fell not because of guns and weapons and war, but because of the faithful prayers of many people, heeding our Blessed Mother to pray the rosary for the conversion of Russia.

The Beatifications of the Seers

In 1935, Jacinta’s body was exhumed and found to be incorrupt. Pope John Paul beatified Jacinta and Francisco on May 13, 2000 during the Jubilee Year. At the same time he has announced that details of the third part of the Fatima secret will be revealed, while also entrusting the third millennium to Our Lady of Fatima. As already mentioned in this article, a description of the visual images of the third part of the secret was publicly divulged in June 2000 with the text omitted. On February 14, 2008, Pope Benedict XVI authorized the cause of the beatification for Sister Lucia who died on February 13, 2005. The shrine of Our Lady of Fatima in Portugal sees thousands of faithful pilgrims each year. Now more than ever, our world needs the rosary. Pray the rosary daily! Brothers and sisters, on this auspicious occasion, I would like to invite all of you to join us on Saturday, May 13, 2017—the actual 100th anniversary of the first appearance of Our Lady to the three children of Fatima. We will be having a rosary procession with hymns on the field at 3:45 p.m. and then processing into Church with the statue of Our Lady of Fatima. The statue of Our Lady of Fatima will stay in the sanctuary of the Church all weekend as we celebrate Mother’s Day and have our annual May Crowning ceremony at all weekend Masses. May our Lady of Fatima continue to intercede for us for the grace of conversion and for peace in our world, our church and our families. God bless you.

Yours in Christ, Fr. Joseph Shea
