Dear friends,

Today is the Feast of Pentecost when we honor and glorify the Holy Spirit for giving birth to the Church. The Holy Spirit is known by many titles: the Paraclete, the Advocate, the Comforter, the Spirit of Truth, the Lord and Giver of life, etc. But here’s one title that you’ve probably never heard before: the Divine Disturber! The Holy Spirit—the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity whom we honor today on Pentecost Sunday—is the Divine Disturber.

This thought came to me after I read something that Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger—who later would become Pope Benedict XVI—wrote. It’s a meditation on Pentecost which he composed back in the late 1970s when he was still a bishop in Germany. In the middle of the meditation, he says these words: “Christ is the Messiah, a victorious King, who has fought and won the decisive battle of world history, the battle with death. Now he exercises the victor’s right to distribute the spoils of war. But what are these spoils? The answer comes: The gift of God is God himself, the Holy Spirit.”

But then he goes on to say that this is not the kind of gift we would normally expect from a conquering king! He writes, “We would expect quite different gifts from a Redeemer.... We would expect a house, money, good food, travel, success, other people’s esteem, comfort, peace, security. But not the Holy Spirit! For in reality the Holy Spirit is largely the opposite of all these things: he makes us restless with our possessions, our comfort, and our respect that is so often based on dubious compromises. He is a tempest. He does not let us settle down in our comfort, but exposes us to ridicule by putting us in the service of truth and obliging us to exercise the self control which loves the other person ‘as myself’.” (Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger, Seek That Which Is Above, Ignatius Press, pp. 74-75.)

In other words, we wouldn’t expect Jesus, our conquering Savior, to send us a “Divine Disturber” after his incredible Easter victory—but that’s exactly what Jesus has done! And it’s the best thing He possibly could have done, even if we don’t always realize it or appreciate it! I say this because the Divine Disturber is the one who gives us new life in the sacraments, who gets us on the road to heaven and keeps us there, if we let Him! And if by chance, we get off the narrow road that leads to the kingdom, the Holy Spirit is the one who gets us back on track through the sacrament of Reconciliation—once again, if we let Him! But getting us on the road to Heaven and keeping us there—or getting us back on the road after we’ve fallen into serious sin—mean that sometimes the Holy Spirit will have to “disturb” us in some way. That is to say, he will have to exercise his role as the Divine Disturber!

For example, have you ever heard a homily that really got you angry? Fuming mad? Well, there are at least two possible reasons for that. Either the preacher did not listen to the Holy Spirit and preached his own version of the Gospel—which can and does happen—or the preacher got it right and the Holy Spirit was convicting you of sin and challenging you to change your life for the better. In most cases, it’s the later. The Holy Spirit used the words of a preacher to upset our complacency or pride.

The late great Bishop Fulton J Sheen had this effect on many people. One story that Bishop Sheen told was about a man named Louis Budenz. This incident happened back in the 1940s. Louis Budenz was the editor of the Communist Daily Worker. As editor of this paper, Louis Budenz frequently wrote articles attacking Bishop Sheen because Sheen was a very strong, very ardent and very vocal opponent of communism. Bishop Sheen often spoke about the evils of communism on his weekly radio show. So you can imagine how surprised Bishop Sheen was when Louis Budenz called him one day, out of the blue, and asked him to dinner. To put it mildly, Bishop Sheen was shocked! He couldn’t believe it, but he accepted the invitation. Later on, Bishop Sheen found out that it was the Soviet government that had ordered Budenz to meet with him. At the beginning of the meal, Louis Budenz began to talk about communism. But after a few minutes Bishop Sheen said to him, “I’m really not terribly interested in your communism. I want to talk to you about your soul.” And Bishop Sheen did! He talked to him about Jesus Christ and Salvation —and Louis Budenz hated every minute of it! Later that night, he went home and said to his wife, “I was never so angry in my life.”

Many years later Louis Budenz’s wife told Bishop Sheen that, from that moment on, whenever her husband heard Bishop Sheen’s voice on the radio, Louis Budenz would fly into a rage! He would scream, “Turn that radio off! I can’t stand to hear that man’s voice!” Incredibly, seven years later, Bishop Sheen received a letter from Louis Budenz, and it read: “Dear Bishop Sheen, I would like to talk to you—about my soul.” And he did. A year later, both Louis Budenz and his wife abandoned their atheistic communism and became Catholics. They were two of Bishop Sheen’s most famous converts. The Holy Spirit disturbed Louis Budenz and his wife out of their sin and error right into the Catholic Church—and the Holy Spirit kept them there until their deaths.

That’s the power of the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity. In one way or another, we all experience this “disturbing” presence of the Spirit in our lives. And if you don’t believe me, just ask our retired pope, Benedict XVI. Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger actually had prophesied his own experience of the Divine Disturber in that meditation I read to you a few minutes ago. Let me read again what he wrote 30 years ago: “The Holy Spirit is a tempest. He does not let us settle down in our comfort, but exposes us to ridicule by putting us in the service of truth and obliging us to exercise the self control which loves the other person ‘as myself’.”

Back in 1991, when he was working for Pope John Paul II as the head of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, Cardinal Ratzinger wanted to retire. In his final years of life, he wanted to go back to Germany to live a quiet life of studying and writing books on theology—things that he loved doing. That was his will. But the Divine Disturber wouldn’t let him! The Holy Spirit didn’t allow him to “settle down in comfort,” to use his own words. The Spirit had other work for him to do, as we all know, in “the service of truth.” And the Church was blessed by that Divine Disturbance.

The Divine Disturber got me the other day. I was listening to a retreat talk by Fr. Larry Richards, a wonderful Catholic evangelist. A line he said rocked me. He said, “Everyone wants Jesus to be their Savior. Everyone wants Jesus to be so willing and merciful to forgive their sins now and at the hour of their death so that they can go to heaven. But the only way that Jesus can be our Savior if Jesus first is the Lord of everything—our time, our money, our marriage, our family, our sexuality, our friendships, our work, our joys and our sorrows.” That little statement spoke to my heart. Every since hearing it, I get up every morning and consecrate every bit of myself to Jesus and put everything under Jesus’ Lordship, and ask Jesus to remind when an area of my life is not under His Lordship.

So the next time you find yourself in a situation where you are challenged to come out of yourself in order to serve someone else in need, or you are challenged to change some area of your life because Jesus is not Lord of it, know that it probably is the Holy Spirit working in your life, just as He worked in Louis Budenz’s life and Pope Benedict XVI’s life. And also remember that the disturbance or challenge is ultimately for your good and the good of others, and for your growth in holiness. As St. Paul told us in today’s second reading from 1 Corinthians 12:7, “To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.”

I’m sure that, on this Pentecost Sunday, Pope Benedict XVI is still praising the Holy Spirit for “disturbing” him in the later years of his life: for keeping him, in other words, from retirement and complacency, and for leading him to the Chair of St. Peter. Let’s join Pope Benedict XVI by saying “Thank you” to the Holy Spirit for the times the Spirit has convicted us of our sins and challenged us to reform our lives and to serve others. Because the bottom line is this, brothers and sisters: The Holy Spirit comes to disturb us in a good way here on earth so that we will not be disturbed in a bad way for all eternity. Amen.

Happy Pentecost. May God bless you.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Joseph Shea

Implement safety rules for kids going to summer camp

Summer camp is a time-honored tradition for kids. Whether it’s an all-day camp or cabin sleep away, kids can get out of the house, learn new skills, and make friends. Parents who send their kids off to camp should be sure to research the camp and the counselors who will be watching their kids. If your child is going to sleep-away camp, check in by phone or mail regularly. Ask questions and ensure that your child is safe and cared for at any camp. PRIEST RETIREMENT FUND
June 10th & 11th

Priests are selfless sources of inspiration, wisdom and comfort who dedicate their lives to guiding us through daily sacraments as well as life's most extraordinary events. From the joyous celebrations of baptism and marriage through anointing the sick and mourning our losses, they stand beside us. With minimal compensation and little or no pension, they often retire with nothing to fall back on. What better way to offer thanks and gratitude to those who have given so much to us and continue to serve our communities long after their administrative duties are fulfilled. Let us make a little sacrifice and show them how much we appreciate the sacrifices they have made by contributing to the Retirement Fund for our Archdiocesan Priests Retirement Fund.

Queridos amigos,
Hoy es la fiesta de Pentecostés cuando honramos y glorificamos al Espíritu Santo por haber dado luz a la Iglesia. El Espíritu Santo es conocido por muchos títulos: el Paráclito, el Defensor, el Consolador, el Espíritu de la Verdad, el Señor y Dador de Vida, etcétera. Pero aquí es un título que probablemente nunca has oído hablar antes: el que Perturbador Divino! El Espíritu Santo, la tercera persona de la Santísima Trinidad que honramos hoy en el domingo de Pentecostés, es el Divino Perturbador. Este pensamiento vino a mí después de leer algo que el Cardenal Joseph Ratzinger — que más tarde se convertiría en el Papa Benedicto XVI, escribió. Es una meditación sobre Pentecostés que compuso en la década de 1970 cuando aún era obispo en Alemania. En medio de la meditación, dice estas palabras: Cristo es el Mesías, un rey victorioso, que ha luchado y ganado la batalla decisiva de la historia mundial, la batalla con la muerte. Ahora él ejerce derecho victorioso para distribuir el botín de guerra. Pero, ¿cuáles son estos botines? La respuesta viene: el regalo de Dios es Dios mismo, el Espíritu Santo.”

Pero luego él pasa a decir que este no es el tipo de regalo que se espera normalmente de un rey conquistador. Él escribe, Esperamos regalos muy diferentes de un Redentor... Esperaríamos una casa, dinero, buena comida, viajes, éxito, autoestima de otras personas, confort, paz, seguridad. Pero no el Espíritu Santo! En realidad el Espíritu Santo es en gran medida lo contrario de todas estas cosas: él nos hace más inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace más inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace más inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de todas estas cosas: él nos hace mas inquietos con nuestra posesión, nuestras posesiones, nuestra comodidad y nuestro respeto de tales cosas que tan a menudo se basa en compromisos dudosos. Es un pensamiento que, tal vez, es tan inquietante como es perturbador, pero que nos expone al ridículo por ponernos al servicio de la verdad y obliga a ejercer el control de sí mismo que ama a la otra persona ‘como así mismo’. (Cardenal Joseph Ratzinger, “Seek that Which is Above”, Ignatius Press, págs. 74-75). Sinceramente, P. Joseph Shea
