Dear friends,

This weekend we celebrate two great events.

The first is the Knights of Columbus’ Annual Chili Cook-off and Car Show. It is a wonderful event for the family and you don’t have to travel far. There will be great food—especially world class chili—great drinks, incredible entertainment, beautiful classic cars, and fun games for the kids. I hope you can come and support the Knights of Columbus because they do so much for all of us.

The second great event is the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity—the most fundamental truth of our Christian faith. Because Jesus revealed it to us, we believe in one God and three Divine Persons. The famous Christian author C. S. Lewis once said, “The Trinity is either the most farcical doctrine invented by the early disciples or the most profound and thrilling mystery revealed by the Creator Himself, giving us a grand intimation of all reality.” We believe the latter is true! The Trinity is the most profound and thrilling mystery revealed by the Creator Himself, giving us a grand understanding of all reality. Everything is based upon it. Everything comes from the life of the Trinity—Creation, Redemption and Salvation.

What does Trinity teach us about God and us? Why is this teaching so important and foundational for us? First, the Trinity teaches us that God is very personal. The Church addresses God in personal terms—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—because this is what Jesus revealed about God. If God is Three Divine Persons, then God wants to be personal with us and to be personally involved with us.

The beauty of the Three Divine Persons of the Trinity is that we have someone with whom we can relate in our prayer in every situation of life. At times in our lives, we might relate more with the Person of the Father Almighty, the Creator, because we need someone who can create something out of nothing, who can bring order out of chaos, who can bring light out of darkness, who can overcome all things, who can recreate the brokenness of life into a new creation if we are willing to trust and surrender to our Father all the broken pieces, and who can bring life out of death. Our heavenly Father is that big and that powerful.

At other times, we might relate better with the Person of the Son, Jesus Christ because we need a Brother, a Redeemer, Someone who took on our human nature, Someone who walked in our shoes and in our flesh and who understands our struggles and weaknesses, Someone who suffered and died for our sins, and Someone who promises that if we suffer and die to sinfulness with Him, we shall reign with Him in heaven and will share eternally in His Divine Life.

And sometimes, we might relate more with the Person of the Holy Spirit because we are in need of the energy, the power and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit to empower us, to sanctify us and to transform us.

Connected to the personal nature of God, this doctrine also reminds us that God wants us to be personally involved with Him, for us to respond to His invitation to love. That means we need to take time to pray each day and worship God at least every Sunday in the Eucharist in order to grow in love with God—Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Second, we learn from the doctrine of the Trinity that Love is the essence of God’s life. Love is the heart and soul of God. That means that we, who were created in the image of God, were created in love and created to love like God. That divine Love should be the source and motivation for everything that we do and say. Love is the purpose and goal of our lives.

But to love we need others. And that brings us to the third truth about the Trinity which is: God is a family of loving relationships. If we are created in the image of God, then we are created to belong to a loving family and to be a loving family on this earth. That’s the divine blueprint of our souls.

We will only know happiness and fulfillment, now and later in heaven, when we learn to live as a family of love. That’s true whether we are speaking about our own personal family or the family of the Church. But to become a loving family, we need to spend time actively building our relationships of love within our homes and within the ministry groups in our parish. And when we love like the family of God—sharing generously with others the many gifts that God has given each of us—then, like the Trinity, there is an infinite amount of gifts to address and solve our problems.

And that brings me to the fourth truth that the doctrine of the Trinity teaches us. The Trinity teaches us that within the family of God, the Trinity, there is infinite power and possibility. Everything comes from this divine family of relationships—creation, salvation, eternal life and glory.

And as we celebrated last week, on the Feast of Pentecost, the Father and the Son sent the Holy Spirit, who, in turn, has given us—the Church, the family of God on earth—all the gifts and graces to complete the mission of salvation in this world. As individuals, you and I can’t solve all the problems in the world because individually you and I don’t have all the gifts. But, we as the Body of Christ, empowered by the Holy Spirit, we do have all the gifts necessary to answer the problems. When we love like the family of God—sharing generously with others the many gifts that God has given each of us—then, like the Trinity, there is an infinite amount of gifts to address and solve our problems.

C. S. Lewis said: “The Trinity is either the most farcical doctrine invented by the early disciples or the most profound and thrilling mystery revealed by the Creator Himself, giving us a grand intimation of all reality.” We believe the latter is true! The Trinity is the most profound and thrilling mystery revealed by the Creator Himself, giving us a grand understanding of all reality—how the mystery of the Trinitarian life is to live in us and through us. And that’s my prayer for all of us today: that the Trinity that brought everything to life and sustains everything will really come alive in us!

I hope to see you at the Knights of Columbus annual Chili Cook-off and Car Show, but even more so I hope to see you in at the big family reunion in heaven with the family of God—the Trinity—and with all the other members of the family of God—the Church. God bless you.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

Next Sunday, June 18th is Father’s Day. Our fathers play a very important role in our lives. Let us honor them by offering a Novena of Masses. May they receive the grace that God in his infinite love has for them.

Our 2016-2017 Catechetical year has come to a close and the Office of Faith Formation will have a brief shutdown. The office will be closed from Monday, May 22—Sunday, June 11, 2017 and will reopen on Monday, June 12, 2017. Thank you for understanding and we apologize for any inconvenience. We pray that you and your family have a blessed and relaxing summer!

RCIA
The great Solemnity of Pentecost marks the great gift of the Holy Spirit to those God the Father calls to be his own. Perhaps you can think of someone who longs to have a closer relationship with our Heavenly Father. Can you plant the seeds of hope as you speak of our Father’s loving care, and his everlasting promises fulfilled in the sending of his Son, and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit? Ask about the RCIA inquiry sessions for those who are not baptized, are of other faiths, or are adult Catholics who were not confirmed. Please contact Julia Dobrucki at 805-915-4625 or Julia@strosesv.com

Summer is almost here. School is almost out, and a whole host of new opportunities for recreation and relaxation await. Maybe you are sending your children to a music or sports camp? Or maybe they have been invited by their friends to go camping in the mountains or at the beach? Whatever the situation, it is important to remember that parents still have the responsibility of controlling access that new people will have to their children. If your children are attending a summer camp, insist that counselors or anyone else who might have access to your children have undergone an application process that includes a criminal background check and reference checks. For particular help, you may call Assistance Ministry at (213) 637-7650.

PRIEST RETIREMENT FUND
June 10th & 11th
Priests are selfless sources of inspiration, wisdom and comfort who dedicate their lives to guiding us through daily sacraments as well as life's most extraordinary events. From the joyous celebrations of baptism and marriage through anointing the sick and mourning our losses, they stand beside us. With minimal compensation and little or no pension, they often retire with nothing to fall back on. What better way to offer thanks and gratitude to those who have given so much to us and continue to serve our communities long after their administrative duties are fulfilled. Let us make a little sacrifice and show them how much we appreciate the sacrifices they have made by contributing to the Retirement Fund for our Archdiocesan Priests Retirement Fund.

Where does my gift go?
Your generous gifts made to the Priest Retirement Fund go directly to the Priest Pension Plan where they are invested and held in a trust account. The pension plan provides for the monthly pension and medical benefits of our currently retired priests and helps to fund the future retirement of our active priests.

How to give:
- Please complete a pledge envelope found in your pew
- Make a gift online by visiting: prfla.org
- Make your gift over the phone
- Make your gift over the phone by calling 213-637-7672 Monday—Friday, 8:00 a.m. — 5:00 p.m.

¿Sabia Usted?
Consejos para la Seguridad en los Campamentos de Verano
El verano está casi aquí. Las clases están casi terminado, y habrá una gran cantidad de nuevas oportunidades para la recreación y la relajación. ¿Quizás usted va a enviar a sus hijos a campamentos de música o deportes? ¿O quizás han sido invitados por sus amigos a ir a campar en las montañas o en la playa? Sea cual sea la situación, es importante recordar que los padres siguen teniendo la responsabilidad de controlar el acceso a personas desconocidas que se relacionen con sus hijos. Si sus hijos van a asistir a un campamento de verano, insista en que los consejeros o cualquier otra persona que pueda tener acceso a sus hijos hayan sido sometidos a un proceso que incluya una verificación de antecedentes penales y verificación de referencias.

LA SANTISIMA TRINIDAD
MISTERIO INEXPRESABLE
El Dios del universo es misterioso. La ciencia no ha podido resolver el misterio de cómo el universo surgió ni explicar exactamente qué es lo que continúa dándole energía creadora y diseño magistral. Ninguna religión afirma que ha encontrado las palabras para nombrar plenamente el misterio inefable de Dios, ya que no importa qué nombre usemos, Dios siempre transcende nuestra limitada capacidad de comprensión. Dios es un misterio en el que se cree y que no se conoce. Y sin embargo, nosotros los cristianos creemos que el nombre que usamos para Dios es el que mejor expresa ese misterio inexpresable: Dios es la Santísima Trinidad de tres personas unidas en una comunión de amor, que se vierte en amor creador, salvador y santificador sobre el mundo. Las lecturas de hoy celebran el misterio de la Trinidad y nos dan las claves para vivir ese misterio en nuestras vidas.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE
Toda devoción mariana debe seguir los pasos de Cristo. Y todo lo que decimos acerca de María debieramos decirlo de nosotros como Iglesia, porque ella es nuestra madre, hermana y modelo. Si Jesús es el Hijo de Dios, María y nosotros también somos hijos e hijas de Dios. Si Jesús tiene un Sagrado Corazón que arde por amor al humano, María tiene un corazón inmaculado que arde con ese mismo amor. ¿Y nosotros?

La devoción al Inmaculado Corazón de María fue promovida por el Papa Pío XII en 1942, durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial. El Papa pidió a María tres gracias para los fieles en Cristo: amor a la pureza, práctica de la vida cristiana y celo apostólico. De esta manera nuestro corazón puede llegar a ser como el de ella.

El corazón inmaculado de María es un corazón que no tiene mancha de pecado. Es un corazón que imita el Sagrado Corazón de su Hijo y Dios, Jesús. Es recuerdo de lo que nuestros corazones pueden ser. Es invitación a que nos vayamos purificando y creciendo en amor ardiente por el prójimo. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Gtz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Clases de Inglés para la comunidad de Santa Rosa de Lima
Por el Diácono Louis Fernández
Teléfono: 805-304-3700

Dos días por semana, tres semanas al mes.
La primera clase en Mayo le dará a conocer los conceptos básicos de la lengua inglesa. El curso le dará la oportunidad de hablar y escribir las palabras cotidianas básicas que necesitamos para empezar. Esta clase le ofrece un lugar para practicar el idioma inglés en un ambiente amistoso con sus compañeros de clase. Página de registro estará disponible después de la Misa en el patio lateral.

Horario para las clases de Inglés – St. Rose of Lima Parish
Hora: 7:00pm – 8:30pm
Lugar: Salón #9, de la Escuela de Sta. Rosa de Lima.
Matricula $25.00 por mes. Incluye los materiales para la clase.
Los estudiantes pueden registrarse de mes en mes.
