Dear friends,

Today I would like to take the opportunity to congratulate two groups of people. First, I would like to congratulate all those who have graduated this year—grade school, high school, college or university or post graduate school. Our parish is so proud of you. I want you to know that our parish will continue to pray for your success as you begin a new stage in your lives.

The second group I want to congratulate and thank is our fathers whom we honor today. We owe our fathers you so much. Rebecca Barlow Jordan expressed it so well in a beautiful short poem titled, A Tribute to My Father.

He’s a giant of a man, with big, strong hands that hold your heart in his own.
The words he speaks are apples of gold that can melt a heart of stone.
His laugh is contagious; his smile sincere;
His life is a book read far and near.
His love gives generous helpings to all;
For a father, you see, is always on call.
His thoughts are old-fashioned, and sometimes his clothes;
But godliness clothes him from his head to his toes.
He has numerous flaws, which he often speaks of,
but his family is blind and covers in love.
Long after he’s gone, a sweet legacy stays filling the hearts of his family with praise.

One last thing, the Feast Day of the Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ (Corpus Christi) coincides with Father’s Day. This Feast reminds us that the Holy Eucharist—this precious gift from our heavenly Father—is the greatest treasure we have. If we receive the Eucharist faithfully, God will give us the strength and joy to be his faithful children. I say this because of a true story I read recently that Fr. Stanislaus, SS.C. told.

The Captain of the Guard in Luxembourg was a lapsed Catholic. He was a butcher in a butcher shop one day when a very poor widow entered the shop and asked the butcher, an atheist, for a small piece of meat so that her family wouldn’t starve. The butcher rudely asked the widow what she had to give him in return. She said, “I will offer my Mass for you.” The butcher scoffed and then went to the scales. Sarcastically he said, “Let’s see what the weight of one Mass equals.” He wrote on a piece of tissue paper the words, “One Mass” and he placed the paper on one pan of the scales. Then he placed a small piece of meat on the other pan. The scale didn’t move. The piece of paper, or rather what it represented, outweighed the weight of the meat. The butcher placed another piece of meat on the scales, and still the scales didn’t move. Furiously, he added more and more meat. The scales still didn’t move. The butcher was befuddled. He couldn’t understand.

The people of the town, now aware of what had happened in the butcher’s shop, did understand. They saw a miracle. They knew that the weight of one Mass outweighed whatever was placed on the other side of the scale. The Captain of the Guard who witnessed this miracle returned to Mass and the practice of his Catholic Faith, and his son would later become a Catholic priest…and yes, he was none other than Fr. Stanislaus, SS.C.

Congratulations to our graduates and our fathers! May God bless you.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

The unifying motif of this year's readings for today is God's gift of living, life-giving Bread. Prefigured in the manna, which not only nourished individuals but defined Israel as a community under God's special care, Jesus, the living bread, bestows on us--individually and as a community--eternal life that, in John's perspective, begins here and is fulfilled hereafter. This "already/not yet" theme is alluded to by the Communion invitation's reference to Revelation's vision of the kingdom-feast: "Happy are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb" (Revelation 19:9) once slain who lives forever. For Saint Paul, the eucharistic bread and cup are both sign of what the community is called to be and source of the community's strength to live that ideal.

FLESH AND BLOOD

Today's Gospel verses, John 6:51-58 are a "eucharistic version" of the previous verses, 6:35-50, in which Jesus asserts, "Whoever believes has eternal life" (6:47). Now Jesus replaces "believes" with "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life" (6:54). This parallelism is mirrored in the complementarity of the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist, the intimate relationship between ambo (lectern) and altar, "the table of God's Word and the table of Christ's Body."

But today's Gospel presents a further parallel, the complementarity of flesh and blood. By using "flesh," a word he sometimes uses to denote the whole of human nature rather than "body," John seems to suggest that, in receiving Christ's Body in the Eucharist, we disciples are to assimilate the whole of Jesus' humanity, his own radically self-sacrificing-untol-death lifestyle as our distinctive manner of being human. Moreover, the very reason the law forbade partaking of sacrificial blood is precisely why Jesus says we must drink his blood, "for the blood is life" (Deuteronomy 12:23). By partaking of Christ's Blood in the Eucharist, we "have eternal life" here and now; that is to say, we live by Christ's victory over death in this life, a victory that will be made permanent when Jesus raises us up on the last day (6:54).

WE ARE ONE

As we partake of this gift, we become one with Christ in reality. But there is more. We also become one with each other. As we all partake of the mystery, we are united in flesh and spirit--in the Holy Spirit--with each other as well. As Paul says, "Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf" (1 Corinthians 10:17).

Today we celebrate this wonderful gift. Even though we do not fully understand it, we believe and accept it with joy. We are one with Christ and one with each other. We too become the Body of Christ in the world.

Today's Readings: Dt 8:2-3, 14b-16a; Ps 147:12-15, 19-20; 1 Cor 10:16-17; Jn 6:51-58

Did you Know?

Bullying is a form of abuse
Did you know that bullying is a form of abuse, and therefore is forbidden in our Catholic schools? Bullying typically consists of direct behaviors, such as teasing, taunting, threatening, hitting, shoving and stealing. But it might also be indirect, such as spreading rumors that cause victims to be socially isolated through intentional exclusion. Cyberbullying, which involves the use of the Internet or mobile phones to send inappropriate messages and images to or about others, is also behavior that is not tolerated in our Catholic schools. If you suspect bullying of a child at school, please contact the school principal with your concerns. For particular help, you may call the Archdiocese’s Victims Assistance Ministry, (213) 637-7650.

Did you Know?

¿Sabia Usted?

El hostigamiento es una forma de abuso
¿Sabía usted que el hostigamiento (bullying) es una forma de abuso y por lo tanto está prohibido en las escuelas católicas? El hostigamiento suele consistir en bromas pesadas, burlas, amenazas, golpes, empujones y robo. Pero también puede ser indirecta, como la difusión de rumores que provoca que las víctimas se aíslan socialmente porque se sienten excluidas por la sociedad. El acoso cibernético, que implica el uso de la Internet o los teléfonos celulares para enviar mensajes o imágenes inapropiadas de personas o a personas también es un comportamiento que no se tolera en nuestras escuelas católicas. Si usted sospecha que algún estudiante es víctima de hostigamiento, inmediatamente comuníquese sus preocupaciones al director de la escuela. Para obtener más ayuda llame a la oficina de la arquidiócesis del Ministerio de Asistencia a Víctimas, (213) 637-7650.
Hoy me gustaría aprovechar la oportunidad para felicitar a dos grupos de personas. En primer lugar, quisiera felicitar a todos los que se han graduado este año — primaria, secundaria, Colegio o Universidad o escuela de postgrado. Nuestra parroquia está tan orgullosa de ustedes. Quiero que sepan que nuestra parroquia seguirá orando por ustedes esperando tengan una nueva exitosa etapa en sus vidas. El segundo grupo, que quiero felicitar y agradecer es nuestros padres quienes honramos hoy. Deberemos a nuestros padres mucho. La Fiesta de Corpus Christi coincide con el Día del Padre. Esta fiesta nos recuerda que la Santa Eucaristía, este precioso regalo de nuestro Padre celestial, es el mayor tesoro que tenemos. Si recibimos la Eucaristía fielmente, Dios nos dará la fuerza y la alegría de ser sus hijos fieles. Digo esto debido a una historia real que he leído hace poco por el padre Stanislaus, SS. C. a. El capitán de la guardia que presenció este milagro de una Misa superaba todo lo que se colocó en el otro lado de la balanza.

El carnicero preguntó groseramente a la viuda como iba a pagar. Ella dijo, "Ofreceré una Misa para usted." El carnicero se burló y luego fue a la balanza. Sarcásticamente dijo: "Vamos a ver lo que es igual al peso de una Misa". Él escribió en un pedazo de papel las palabras, "Una Misa" y colocaron el papel sobre una bandeja. Entonces puso un trozo de carne en el papel las palabras, "Una Misa" y colocaron el papel sobre una bandeja. Las escalas todavía no se movieron. El carnicero coloca otro trozo de carne en las escalas, y otra bandeja. La balanza no se movía. El pedazo de papel, o bandeja de las escalas. Entonces puso un trozo de carne en la otra bandeja. La balanza no se movía. El pedazo de papel, o más bien lo que representaba, había compensado el peso de la carne. El carnicero colocaba otro trozo de carne en las escalas, y todavía la balanza no se movía. Furiosamente, añadió más carne. El carnicero volvió a Misa y a la práctica de su fe Católica y su hijo más tarde se convertiría en un sacerdote católico... y sí, él no era otro que el padre Stanislaus, SS.C.

Felicidad a nuestros jóvenes graduados y nuestros padres.

Que Dios los bendiga. Sinceramente en Cristo, Fr. Joseph Shea
