Dear friends,

In light of the recent Charlottesville tragedy, I wanted to share with you a simple, but insightful reflection that Fr. Dwight Longnecker wrote this week titled, “What Happened in Charlottesville?” In the midst of all the media hype that increases the polarity among people and the rancorous tone of conversations, it would do us well to reflect on what Fr. Longnecker wrote. I quote:

“I’ll tell you what’s happened in Charlottesville this weekend. It is human beings revealing what lies within. It’s real simple and it’s been happening since Cain killed his brother Abel. It works like this:

1. Human being is unhappy.
2. He doesn’t know why he’s unhappy.
3. Somebody must be at fault.
4. He needs to blame somebody for his being unhappy.
5. It can’t be his fault because he’s convinced that he’s a good person.
6. So it must be somebody else’s fault.
7. So he gets together with other people who are unhappy.
8. They talk about why they are unhappy and conclude that it must be somebody else’s fault.
9. The other person is to blame, but who is that other person?
10. It’s the people who are not like them.
11. It’s the people who disagree with them.
12. It’s the people of a different religion, a different race or a different belief.
13. Those people are the problem.
14. To get rid of the problem they conclude that they have to get rid of the people who caused the problem.
15. First they try to exclude those people.
16. Then they try to persecute those people.
17. Then they try to kill those people.
18. If only they can eradicate those other people then they will be happy.
19. Once they did get rid of them they felt so good that it was like a drug.

So they will try to get that feeling again like any addict does.

Where does the whole sequence go so terribly wrong? At stage number five–when the person cannot or will not see that they are responsible for their unhappiness, and even if they are not the ones who caused it they are the ones who can solve it. As soon as we enter the blame game we are headed down the road of destruction. Charlottesville has revealed to all of us what it means to be an unredeemed human being. Only repentance can solve this problem for repentance is, at its very heart, the simple act of a person taking responsibility for themselves—for their own happiness and by God’s help, the solution to their problems. Then once they take responsibility for themselves they might start taking responsibility for the happiness of others.

God bless you. Remember to call to come to the parish picnic on August 25 and to call in your reservation so that we will have enough food for all.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

Our new Thursday night bible study is on Ephesians and starts on Thursday, Sept. 7th at 7:00pm in Rm 8. A limited number of the accompany study sets are available at the rectory for $19.95. Some scholarships are available.

Discover Your Inheritance
Paul’s letter to the Ephesians reveals many remarkable gifts that we as Christians are given in the Church. This letter tells us about the nature of the Church — as a body, as a household, as a mystery, as a communion, as a bride, and as an army. It shows us the great inheritance that awaits us as sons and daughters, adopted fully into the family of God. It reveals how God’s great love for us can transform our daily lives if we allow it. Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance is an 8-part Bible study that will enrich your faith, and show you how to live it out.

In this study, you will: Discover what it means to be not just a son or daughter of God, but an heir to all he has to give. Learn about the great mystery of how we can love one another as Christ loves the Church. Find out that you have a place in God’s “plan of sheer goodness.”

Did you Know?

Teach kids when to say something
It is important to help children understand the difference between telling on others and sharing information that could help keep themselves or someone else safe. Teach children about secrets that are okay (a surprise birthday party), and secrets that are never okay (don’t tell mom or dad that...), and, perhaps most importantly, what to do if someone asks them to keep a bad secret. Speaking up can save a kid from harm or abuse. To request a copy of the VIRTUS® article “To Tattle or Protect” email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.

¿Sabia Usted?

Enséñele a los niños cuándo decir algo
Es importante ayudar a los niños a comprender la diferencia entre contar algo sobre los demás y compartir información que podría ayudar a mantenerse a sí mismos o a otra persona a salvo. Enséñele a los niños sobre los secretos que está bien no contar (una fiesta de cumpleaños sorpresa), y los secretos que nunca están bien (no decirle a mamá o papá que...), y, quizás lo más importante, qué hacer si alguien les pide que mantengan en secreto algo malo. Hablar puede salvar a un niño de daño o abuso. LLAMADOS A ACTUAR EN EL NOMBRE DE DIOS

"¡Que todos los pueblos te alaben!" (Salmo 67:4) exclama la respuesta del salmo de hoy. En el salterio y en otras escrituras hebreas, este tipo de invocación es en realidad una invitación a Dios para que actúe e intervenga en las vidas humanas de tal manera que haga que todos -no sólo el Pueblo Elegido- expresen alabanzas. Dicho algo más fuerte, es como desafiar a Dios para que "aguante o se calle", el tipo de palabras duras que los salmistas de Israel, confiando en su íntima relación de amor con Dios, no temían expresar.

El Evangelio tiene su propia exclamación que anuncia la aparición de la mujer cananea con un "Entonces" (Mateo 15:22). "Entonces" o "he aquí" es una señal en la Biblia que nos indica que observemos con mucha atención, que Dios está por actuar o anunciar algo por medio de un individuo o una situación. En el caso de Jesús, Dios iba a obrar a través de esta mujer, a quien ninguno de los seguidores de Jesús hubiera creído pudiera ser una agente de la voluntad divina. Como los salmistas, puede que informemos en forma pasiva a Dios o quizás hasta activamente le desafíemos para que haga algo para que todos lleguen a creer, mas Dios siempre nos volteará las posiciones. Se convierte en nuestro llamado, nuestro deber (como lo fue para Jesús) observar atentamente las situaciones y a las personas en nuestra vida diaria para que Dios pueda actuar a través de nosotros, para que el Reino sea anunciado en nuestro diario vivir.
