Congratulations

Our Pastor, Fr. Joseph Shea, celebrates his 40 years Anniversary as Priest today. As dawn breaks over this new day we celebrate a gift from God to all of us, our Pastor Fr. Joseph Shea. He celebrates a milestone in his Priestly life—40 years of Priestly service, to the people of God in four different parishes and as Director of Vocations to the Priesthood in this our Archdiocese of Los Angeles. He has given to us here, the community of St. Rose of Lima Parish, ten years out of those 40 as our Pastor. (continued on page 3)

It is a record for any one Priest to hold so few assignments in the Archdiocese. It appears that whatever assignment he held in the Archdiocese he stayed so long, the people could not get rid of him!

Many of you here are parishioners of St. Rose much longer than I. I arrived here relatively recently,— July 2nd 2016 less than two years ago. Consequently, you have experienced Fr. Joe’s ministry more than me.

There is a sentence in the English language that reads: “If you want to know me, come and live with me.” I have had that experience with Fr. Joe together with our other two parish priests Fr. Jim and Fr. Gregorio.

I have learned many things from and about Fr. Joe in my short time here with him. Only one suffices here. In Fr. Joe’s book all you Parishioners come first never himself. He sacrifices himself to serve you the people of God, the heart of Priesthood — love at its bests. In case any of you have not noticed but I know many of you have. Whether you call upon him 12 o’clock in the day or, 12 o’clock at night he is always promptly there for you.

Furthermore he and I know you love him in return in a myriad of ways as our Pastor. You always come through for him by showing him your support as our Pastor. It is quite a romantic relationship between you, parishioners and himself, as far as I can see. It is good!

The mother language of the Church, the Latin, comes into play here.

It says, Fr. Joe, “Ad Multos Annos,” which translated means: Fr. Joe, “May you have many more years.”

It is our privilege you are our PASTOR.

God Bless.

Fr. John

In the words of Fr. Joe’s patron, St. John Vianney, known as the Curè of Ars from a town in France:

“When the heart is pure and simple it cannot help loving, because it has discovered the source of love which is God.”
