While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body."

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them,

"This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.

Dear friends,

Thank you ever so much for the many cards, greetings, well-wishes and gifts that you gave me on the occasion of my 40th anniversary of priestly ordination. I am truly grateful.

As I shared briefly on Sunday at the Mass of Thanksgiving of my actual 40th anniversary (May 27, 1978—May 27, 2018), I have two responses to this milestone.

The first is: “I can’t believe that 40 years have passed since I lay down in the sanctuary of St. Vibiana’s Cathedral to offer my life to Jesus Christ in service of his Church and Cardinal Timothy Manning laid hands on my head to ordain me.” It has flown by so quickly.

Second, I am incredibly grateful to God for calling me to be a priest and so grateful to all God’s people for their prayers, support, encouragement and guidance through the years—starting with my dear parents—Joseph and Monica Jean Shea—to my brothers and sisters and extended family, to my friends—to all the priests and Religious who were teachers and inspirational models and co-workers—and to all the parishioners at St. St. John Baptist de la Salle (my home parish), Ignatius of Loyola (Highland Park), St. John Vianney (Hacienda Heights), St. Philip the Apostle (Pasadena—in residence when I was the Vocation Director for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles), Holy Family (Glendale), and especially to you, the parishioners of St. Rose of Lima. I am the most blessed man alive.

May God bless you—I certainly do!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

Know the signs of abuse and talk to your children about them.

Some signs of abuse are too obvious to hide. Unexplained bruises and injuries may indicate abuse at home, and children who are close to a victim may notice these injuries more quickly than an adult, because they spend more time together. Children also share secrets with each other, and if a child is being abused, he/she may be more comfortable confiding in a close friend than an adult. It is important to talk to children about the signs of abuse, and encourage them to talk to you. To watch a video on this topic go to: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JNoNlSIj8Ws.

¿Sabía Usted?

Algunas señales de abuso son demasiado obvias para ocultarse, especialmente si un niño está tratando de encubrir evidencia. Los moretones y lesiones inexplicables pueden indicar abuso en el hogar, y los niños que están cerca de la víctima pueden notar estas lesiones más rápidamente que un adulto, porque pasan más tiempo juntos. Los niños también comparten secretos entre sí, y si se está abusando de un niño, él/ella puede sentirse más cómodo/a confiando en un amigo cercano que en un adulto. Es importante hablar con los niños sobre las señales de abuso y alentarlos a hablar con usted. Para ver un video acerca de este tema visite https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JNoNiSLj8Ws.
