Hello everyone! We are happy to introduce our new Assistant Youth Minister, Lupita Ochoa!

Lupita has been a life-long member of St. Rose of Lima Parish community. Lupita grew up attending Hispanic Ministry and service opportunity events with her parents in the parish. In the past six years, Lupita has been serving in YM (Youth Ministry) as both a teen and then as an adult leader, retreat organizer, and speaker.

Beginning with leading small-groups for Confirmation teens, Lupita have since led and helped plan retreats, headed our peer leadership team, and is focused on the vision of YM at St. Rose in helping our teens follow Christ. Now, as Assistant Youth Minister, she is excited to give back, further develop her leadership skills, and utilize her passions for ministry and organization. Lupita has a desire to seek out Christ through this Church in her own life and to lead teens and young adults closer to Him as young Catholic disciples.

God is so good! Our parish has been doubly blessed.

First, we had a very successful parish carnival. I have told that this was the best carnival in 9 years. For this, I want to thank Don and Teresa Runyon and his tremendous Carnival Committee—George and Jan Gnesda (food) Matt and Sue Savage (games), Joe Zabaglo (inventory), Joanne and Erwin Illustrisimo (finance) Dave Kern (main gate) Bob Smith and Mark Griffith (sound engineers) Joe and Lorraine Ferrall (entertainment) for organizing and directing our carnival.

I also want to thank all our great volunteers—young and old—our parish staff, our parish families, our grade school families, the Knights of Columbus, the Hispanic Ministry, the Lemos family (love those carnitas!), the Filipino community, and members of the Young Adult and Youth Ministries who worked long hours to welcome, entertain and serve our thousands of guests. And finally, I want to thank all of you people who came out with your family and friends to support our carnival.

Thank you for all your prayers, support and love. May God bless you!

Yours in Christ

Fr. Joseph Shea

“The Master Sculptor”*

We must offer ourselves to God like a clean, smooth canvas and not worry ourselves about how God may choose to paint on it, for we have perfect trust in Him, have abandoned ourselves to Him and are so busy doing our duty that we forget ourselves and all our needs. The more closely we devote ourselves to our small tasks, which are so simple, so secret and so hidden and apparently so paltry, the more does God enrich and adorn them: "God works wonders for those whom He loves (Psalm 4:3).

It is true that a canvas simply and blindly offered to the brush feels at each moment only the stroke of the brush. It is the same with the lump of stone. Each blow from the hammering of the sculptor's chisel makes it feel - if it could - as if it were being destroyed:

As blow after blow descends, the stone knows nothing of how the sculptor is shaping it. All it feels is a chisel chopping away at it, cutting it and mutilating it. For example, let us take a piece of stone destined to be carved into a crucifix or a statue. We might ask it: "What do you think is happening to you?" And, it might answer: "Don't ask me. All I know is that I must stay immovable in the hands of the sculptor, and I must love him and endure all he inflicts on me to produce the figure he has in mind. He knows how to do it. As for me, I have no idea what he is doing, nor do I know what he will make of me. But, what I do know is that his work is the best possible. It is perfect. I welcome each blow of his chisel as the best possible. It is perfect. I welcome each blow of his chisel as the best thing that could happen to me, although, if I am to be truthful, I feel that every one of these blows is ruining me, destroying me and disfiguring me. But, I remain unconcerned. I concentrate on the present moment, I think only of my duty, and suffer [allow] all that this master sculptor inflicts on me without knowing his purpose or fretting about it."

Yes, leave to God what is His business and carry on peacefully with your work. Be quite sure that whatever happens to your spiritual life or to your activities in the world is always the best. Let God act, and abandon yourself to Him. Let the chisel and brush do their work, even though the brush covers the canvas with so many colors that, instead of a picture, it seems there is only a daub.

*Fr. Jean-Pierre de Caussade, "Abandonment to Divine Providence."

Did you Know?

Cell phone snapshots may not be so innocent

Nearly everyone has a cell phone and that may be great for communication and connection, but it also gives rise to concerns about who may be taking photos of you or your children without your knowledge. You can’t police the behaviors of others around you, but you can avoid taking pictures of your own children in public, and posting photos online that give away the locations of your favorite parks and hangouts. If your children have phones, monitor the photos they are taking and sharing, too. For a copy of the complete VIRTUS® article “Camera Phones: Unseen Dangers”.

Si quiere la copia completa del artículo de VIRTUS sobre las “Fotos de los teléfonos y el peligro que representan”.
