*Occasionally the Celebrant may change.
From the desk of Fr. Jim Maher...

The following essay is taken from a chapter in the book "Sought and I Found" authored by Carlo Caretto. He writes from the perspective of an 89-year old man.

He writes: "In my 89th year of life, if you were to ask me: “What is the most beautiful gift in life? I would tell you that it is death. Now, I know many of you will think I have gone crazy, but let me explain. You see, at 89 years of age, I have come to believe more than ever before that Jesus Christ is the Son of the living God, that Jesus Christ died on the Cross and conquered sin and death forever, and that His Resurrection from the dead promised everyone who believes in Him, a. new and more glorious life. Because of Jesus, I believe more than ever that death is not the end; no, it is the moment I get it all back renewed, transformed and glorified. Death enables me to start again. For these reasons I love death.

I do not love death because it dissolves my last remaining strength. I love death because as the Book of Revelation tells us “He will make all things new”. So, whenever, I see a slobbering, trembling old man, I put my imagination to work and see in him the body of a happy baby. Whenever I look at a woman tragically enduring the ugliness and inroads of old age, the fruit of time, I put my imagination of faith to work and think of her as a beautiful teen-age girl racing through a field of flowers to meet her sweetheart.

I love death because it gives me back life, this time forever young and new. I run to my death as I used to run as a little boy, after school, to meet my father who had come to take me for a walk in the beautiful fields along the Po River in Italy. I run to my death because I know I shall finally see the Kingdom of God which, here below, I only saw through the mist and dreamed about. I run to my death because I shall see the Church in its final transparency. I shall see my beautiful mother and father again and I shall see my brother and sister and my dear old friends again.

I love death because I shall see all the people of God, face-to-face. I shall be thunderstruck at His beauty and shall never have to leave Him again. Also, I shall know all the mysteries of the 'whys' and 'wherefores' of all history, the succession of the generations, of all the tears and bloodshed."

Educate children to identify risky behavior

Recently, abuse against women has been thrust into the public spotlight, with the “Me Too” movement. It is important for parents/caregivers to be aware of risks to girls and risks to boys. Boys and girls both need to be educated on what’s acceptable and what’s inappropriate, and how to react if someone does something that crosses the line. It is important for adults to reinforce the message that we must all look for, identify, and call attention to the risky behavior exhibited by any adult toward any child.

WOMEN

All women are invited to an Evening of Recollection sponsored by Opus Dei. It will take place on Monday, August 6, in the church from 7-9 PM. It will take place at St. Paschal Baylon Church in Thousand Oaks. There will be two meditations, a talk and time for personal prayer and Confession. The evening will end with Benediction. If you have any questions please contact Marisa Schoeffer (818) 517-0951.

Adoración Perpetua es un servicio Angélico, un acto de profunda fe y ferviente amor hacia la Santísima Eucaristía. Dibuja las invaluables bendiciones a la humanidad por tiempo y eternidad. Es una satisfacción especial al Divino Corazón de Jesús, un gran consuelo para la Iglesia que Sufre en el Purgatorio, una fuente de fuerza para la Iglesia Militante en la tierra y un causa de alegría para la Iglesia Triunfante en el Cielo. Aquellos que, de hecho, realizan una obra agradable a Dios más que por sus contribuciones caritativas hacen posible para la Adoración Perpetua a florecer.

¿Sabía Usted?
Recientemente, se ha puesto más en la luz pública el abuso contra las mujeres con el movimiento “Me Too”. Es importante para los padres de familia y quienes cuidan a niños sean conscientes de los riesgos a las niñas y los niños. Tanto los niños como las niñas deben ser educados en lo que es aceptable y lo que es inapropiado, y cómo reaccionar si alguien les hace algo que cruce esas líneas. Es importante que los adultos refuercen el mensaje que todos debemos seguir, para identificar y llamar la atención sobre un comportamiento de riesgo exhibido por cualquier adulto hacia cualquier niño o niña.
