Dear friends,
The recently released report about the clergy sexual abuse in Pennsylvania has been devastating for all faithful Catholics—lay and priest alike. I have been praying how I could respond adequately to you about this issue. Then I read two articles that Fr. Roger Landry wrote that address the issue head on with great insight and wisdom. So I am reprinting one this week and will reprint his second article next week. After you have read both, I would like to hear your feedback and/or questions.

“Truth Is Needed to Free the Church From Sacrilege of Clergy Scandal” by Fr. Roger Landry

“The sad revelations about the sins of former Cardinal Theodore McCarrick, involving the sexual abuse of both male minors and seminarians, have brought the Church in the U.S. and beyond to a second recent phase in the necessary purification of the clergy of the Church. The first phase happened in 2002, after the disclosure that more than 4,000 (out of 110,000) priests had been accused in the U.S. of sexual abuse of minors in the previous half-century.

The U.S. bishops convened in Dallas and adopted what has overall been a heralded systemic response to root out those who have abused minors from the priesthood, protect children and care for survivors. But there were several major problems with Dallas.

First, the phrase “credible accusations” was exceedingly vague and could encompass even accusations that were immediately demonstrably false.

Second, bishops exempted themselves from the policy.

Third, they didn’t have the courage to address what the data clearly showed was the main part of the crisis: It wasn’t pedophilia, or the sexual abuse of pre-pubescent girls and boys; rather, it was ephebophilia, the same-sex molestation of post-pubescent boys, encompassing more than four out of five accusations.

Fourth, they did not focus adequately on the corrupt culture that permitted such wide-scale abuse and the lack of determination to eradicate it: the practical toleration in many dioceses of priests living double lives, cheating on their vocations with men and women. As Father Thomas Berg recently wrote, “We can’t prevent the sexual abuse of minors or vulnerable adults by clergy while habitual and widespread failures in celibacy are left unchecked.”

The accusations against Archbishop McCarrick have exposed these last three lacunae in disgusting fashion. Several bishops, most notably Houston Cardinal Daniel DiNardo, the president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, have put out firm statements indicating that bishops must no longer be exempt, that all sexual abuse and harassment by clergy of anyone must be addressed — and all sexual activity by clergy is abusive, even if consensual, because it is spiritually incestuous — and that the Church must address the cancerous prevalence of an unchaste same-sex subculture in the clergy.

These are not easy issues to talk or write about. They sicken and justly scandalize believers. Light, however, is a great sanitizer. Just as the revelations of the thousands of cases of clerical sexual abuse of minors in 2002 was not the problem, but the abuse itself that had remained hidden for decades was, so the disclosures against Archbishop McCarrick and others in recent weeks, although nauseating and infuriating, are a necessary part of the healing process. The truth is needed in order to set the Church free of these sacrileges, which devastate individual victims and wound the whole Church.

Since this second wave of scandals has hit, I’ve received hundreds of phone calls and emails from friends and reporters. The internet has exploded with fair questions that deserve answers. The faith of many in the Church as a holy, rather than corrupt, institution has been shaken. People don’t know what to think about their bishops or priests. They legitimately ask how such depraved misconduct could go on so long. I’d like to attempt a candid response to some of their many questions.

How should we respond to this?

First, by reparation, because God is the most offended of all.

Second, by demanding to get to the bottom of it, which is part of a firm purpose of amendment and will help to prevent its recurrence.

Third, by focusing on living the faith. Jesus told the Parable of the Wheat and the Weeds (Matthew 13:24-30) to teach us that our fundamental focus should never be on rooting out the weeds, but rather on the growth of the wheat. Every crisis in the Church is a crisis of saints, and God will respond to infidelity with many graces of fidelity to help bring the Church back to the holiness in earthen vessels that he wants to characterize it. Continued next Sunday...

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion Needed!!

Have you ever considered becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion? We are “Extraordinary” only because we are not the “Ordinary” Ministers of Holy Communion (the Priests and Deacons). Pope Paul VI stated that the Mass is the “most perfect form of prayer” — and there is no greater way for a layperson to experience it than through the privilege of distributing our Lord to our fellow Catholics.

Contrary to what some may think — this is not a lifelong commitment. There is no ordination, no contract, nor will you be expected to serve at a mass that you don’t normally attend. You can serve at the Mass that you normally attend and will be scheduled for that Mass 1-2 months at a time. We also have periodic volunteer call outs for Holy Days, First Communions and special events.

If you are interested in this enriching and rewarding ministry – please complete the “New Minister Survey” on the parish website that can be found here: https://strosesv.com/eucharistic-ministers. You will find the Survey at the bottom left of the page. Please prayerfully consider joining today!

Safety tips for kids playing sports this school year

Sports seasons start early, even for young children, and while it’s great that they’re out getting exercise and learning new skills, safety is still a top priority. It’s recommended that all children who are playing school sports have an annual physical, and relevant health information (allergies, conditions, etc.) should be shared with coaches. Parents should make sure their children have the right gear, and that it fits and works well. Children should stay well-hydrated, well-fed, and well-rested to keep up their energy and strength. Student athletes should be learning to be kind and fair, too, no matter the outcome of the game.

¿Sabia Usted?

Las temporadas deportivas comienzan temprano, incluso para los niños pequeños, y si bien es fantástico que estén haciendo ejercicio y aprendiendo nuevas habilidades, la seguridad sigue siendo una alta prioridad. Se recomienda que a todos los niños que practiquen deportes escolares se les haga un examen físico anual, y la información relevante de salud (alergias, condiciones, etc.) se debe compartir con los entrenadores. Los padres de familia deben asegurarse de que sus hijos tengan el equipo adecuado, y que calce y funcione bien. Los niños deben mantenerse bien hidratados, bien alimentados y bien descansados para mantener su energía y fuerza. Los estudiantes atletas deben aprender a ser amables y justos, sin importar el resultado del juego.

Religionless Spirituality: Why We Need the Church
Renowned Scripture scholar and author, Dr. Tim Gray, provides a fascinating explanation of the importance of the visible Church and the centrality of God on Earth. He offers incredible insights that make clear the role of the Church as an essential part of God’s plan for salvation, which are sure to help those who have left her, or who mistakenly claim to be “spiritual, but not religious.”

CATHOLIC FAITH FACTS is BACK!!!
Do you ever wonder why we believe the things we believe in as Catholics? Are you tired of being asked questions about your Catholic faith from loved ones, friends or co-workers - and NOT being able to give an answer?

If this sounds like you – please consider joining the Catholic Faith Facts Apologetics Course here at St. Rose of Lima. You will learn how to give Biblical answers for your faith as well as the corresponding references from the Catechism. You will gain a clearer understanding about subjects like the Mass, defending Marian doctrines, the Eucharist, Purgatory, Confession, statues and images, praying to the saints, and many more.

Beginning on Wednesday, Sept. 12, and every other Wednesday after that - we will meet in Room 9 of the school. Bring a family member or a friend with you who may have questions about a particular topic we are discussing.

As the Body of Christ, our Catholic faith is a family journey – so don’t try to walk it alone and uninformed! Visit our page on the Parish website to see the topics covered in previous classes: https://strosesv.com/cff-apologetics-class

A Catholic Bible and a “Catechism of the Catholic Church” are a must for every Catholic home! (Available in our gift shop.)

God gives us His word in the Bible, and the Magisterial Teachings of the Catholic Church provide us with direction to follow it. Another way to be a well-informed and a vibrant Catholic is to visit the USCCB website listed below where you will find a wealth of practical information.

“Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope.” 1 Peter 3:15
