Occasionally the Celebrant may change.
Thank you from Fr. John

As many of you know, I returned from my European vacation last week after visiting four countries.

The last stop was in Ireland for two weeks to refresh my Irish Roots. As mentioned at the announcement time, before my departure, at the two early Sunday morning Masses, while in Ireland I would be meeting with my favorite nephew Joe Murphy, my sister Anne’s and Pat Murphy’s Son. While there I quickly learned that Joe is the Favorite not only of his village neighbors in Knockaderry Co. Limerick, but of people from all over Ireland including from parts of America, as I observed from the daily amount of “Get Well Cards”, Texts, Calls, including people “dropping in” to briefly visit him. Joe’s parents died less than five years ago, within a few years of each other. The family always say “The Doctors say Mom died of cancer, but we know she died of a broken heart”. The couple were known by all, who knew them to be very “close”. That quality has rubbed off on their eight children in family now scattered elsewhere living with their own respective families. Presently Joe is ill with terminal cancer. He was 51 years recently. He will not see his next birthday, on this earth. The Doctors say it is a matter of months.

To give you an insight into the kind of person Joe is, having observed him as his uncle, grow through life, he married the love of his life,-- her name, -- before marriage to Joe,-- Mary Moloney, (now Murphy.) Is this a coincidence or what? They have two children Deborah and Patrick, now adults including a family pet dog named “LOU” a brown and white Cockier Spaniel dog, who currently acts “lost” because he does not always hear “His master’s voice daily” and now seldom see each other. But when they do meet “both” get very excited.

Before their Marriage Joe’s Parents gave the young couple a site for their new matrimonial home. They decided to have building contractors build a two storey home which turned out in the end, beautiful. The home was built completely by cash only, not credit. Joe believes, and repeatedly says, the use of “credit” or “credit cards is a “mugs” game, despite having credit cards in his pocket, rarely used by him. Yet another insight … Joe despite his young years, “Is a chip off the olde Block”. Joe continues to practice daily, a deep Faith in God and Prayer. It is a public secret to all who knows him, Joe goes every evening to visit and pray at his Parents Grave nearby, before darkness falls.

Joe practices a deep Faith in God, Marriage, Family Life, a Pride of Country, as well as a great lover of Sport. With his death approaching he has shared more than once his personal anxiety about no longer being able to be the family breadwinner. All have reassured him it is already taken care of.

Joe is fully aware of all that is happening. He has taken charge in detail all his funeral arrangements. To quote one example which is classic Joe in the eyes of the Family. He has appointed Paul, his eldest brother to speak at his funeral :”Paul, make sure you make everybody at my funeral ‘cry’ and “laugh through the tears”. He was consulted by the family if they wanted to observe a family tradition observed for their dying Parents namely to play at his bedside and sing him into Heaven. Between the eight in family they play eleven instruments. Without hesitation Joe responded: “Obviously…Of Course…” God gifted their Parents Anne and Pat with the gift of music. Anne loved to play the Grand Piano and her husband Pat, the Violin. When the two of them played together it was quite a Romance to behold. They passed the gift of music on to their children. Now they have handed down the gift to their families.

We have Joe on camera, a few weeks ago as part of his music therapy while in hospice, play from memory on his flute, an ancient Irish tune. 34 years has passed since he last played that music piece. Joe is clear he wants The Mass of Christian Burial to be full of Music and Singing, Joy and Hope for everybody gathered, to celebrate his life.

In the meantime the family together with Joe, in the words of Pope Francis, patiently wait for Joe “to be called Home to the House of the Father” He assures us all he is ready. Thank you for your prayers and support. It is good to be back home again with you… Fr. John.

Our Lord Himself has promised that He will bless and sanctify those families who Enthrone Him as King. He asked Saint Margaret Mary, to whom He revealed His Sacred Heart, that He be allowed to reign over the homes of the rich and the poor; that He be solemnly received as King and Friend, and that His Sacred Heart be honored and loved. “I will establish peace in their homes: I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life: I will comfort them in all their afflictions; I will bless all their undertakings.” Hence we may safely say that this is the means Our Lord Himself has selected to restore His sovereign rights over the family, and through the family, over society itself.

Did you Know?

It is important to communicate your concerns if you observe anyone interacting with a child in an inappropriate manner. Parents, family members, teachers, clergy and all who work with or are responsible for the care of children need to remember that speaking up is one of the most important things they can do to protect not just their own children, but all children. Voicing your concerns is critical to protecting God’s children.

¿Sabia Usted?

Si usted observa a alguien interactuando con un niño o una niña en una forma inapropiada, es importante que comunique sus preocupaciones. Los padres de familia, miembros de la familia, profesores, sacerdotes y todos aquellos que trabajan con niños o son responsables del cuidado de niños, necesitan recordar que elevar la voz puede ayudar a proteger no sólo a sus propios hijos, sino a todos los niños. Hablar sobre sus preocupaciones es muy importante para proteger a los hijos de Dios.
