A personal viewpoint from Fr. John

In light of the Pennsylvania grand jury report and the questions swirling around Archbishop Theodore McCarrick, the lives of priests have been affected greatly by these ongoing scandals. Still despite this dark time in the Church, we priests still need to be full of Christ’s light and live joyfully for God, for our flocks & for ourselves. In doing so, we recall the saints & martyrs in the early Church, especially their joyful & hope-filled attitude, when facing martyrdom from wild beasts & sword. Their lives offer us a basic truth, easy to forget in today’s secular world. That truth is “we are made for eternity!”

In our secular world, the reward of a life to come after death has largely been forgotten. But without a firm conviction about our ultimate destiny, and hope or joy that comes our way in this world will be temporary. No matter how much a faithful priest endures in the present situation or what he is asked to do, he does well to remember that we are made for more than this world. While our present lives & ministry are important, we are made for eternity. With this in mind, we reflect on six considerations. 1. Presence of the Holy Spirit: the Holy Spirit is at the core of who we are as priests & guides the Church in the way of truth. The present crisis in the Church is not the first one in history but of course we hope it will be the last. Times like this I’m important to realize that the Holy Spirit is working to bring good out of evil. I’m too early to anticipate what this might mean for the Church’s future. But for the priest it reminds us to renew our faith in God’s abiding presence & to encourage others to do the same. 2. This Scandal is Bigger that Any of Us: Many priests are frustrated, disillusioned & hurt at what has happened & what is going on now. This is a heavy burden. In this climate, faithful priests need to remember that they can only do so much. While some things may appear to be falling apart externally, priests are challenged to live a hope-filled & joyful life. Why should faithful priests live in any other way? It is their faithful day-to-day presence & ministry that inspires others & motivates them to remain the Church & serve God’s people. Although a priest individually may be powerless to effect institutional/systemic change in the priest scandal, he needs to pray that the Holy Spirit will bring wisdom to Church leaders. As to himself, his demeanor & openness are the kind of witness that ordinary people need to see in troubling times. In this ministry, a priest’s joy brings renewed trust a community that has many questions & may not know who to believe, Priests who reflect the joy of Christ-and the joy of the early martyrs as they offered themselves for their faith-are a great blessing & attract young & old alike. A joyful priest is a needed more today than ever. 3. Know Who You Are as a Person & Priest: What we do as priests is important. It is rooted in who we are as children of God & in our being Christ to others. I came to a deeper awareness of this connection during a prolonged sickness years ago. Being limited in the work commitments I could do as a priest led me to reflect on my identity as a person. I realized that my work as a priest & who I am as a person go hand in hand. What I do is rooted in who I am. As priests, who we are & what we do shape each other; we need both/and to be the joy-filled priests we are called to be. Perhaps the greatest gift a faithful priest can offer today’s Church is to be faithful to who we are & to what we believe, all while listening to, supporting & treating parishioners kindly & with compassion. Today’s priest can rise above the fray & reflect on why we are priests in the first place. To be a priest is to accept our cross & walk the road to eternity with confidence & hope. While fully cognizant of our responsibilities in this world, the important work we do as priests-celebrating the sacraments, especially the Mass, comforting the dying, teaching preaching & more—is rooted in our belief that we are on a pilgrim journey & do not have here at lastin place to dwell. Convinced of who we are as servants of Christ in this world, anticipating eternal blessedness in the next is the fundamental reason for our lasting joy & hope. 4. This Crisis Is an Opportunity: Discerning how a priest should respond in troubled time is not easy. It serves the priest well to re-examine Jesus’ attitude toward servant leaders. Jesus came as a servant, or, as he says, “The Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many” (Mt 20:28). Jesus’ servant leadership allowed him to cut through the evils of the time & to set in motion a new way of life, centered on the beatitudes. The challenges facing the Church invite every priest to examine his role as a servant leader in imitation of Christ. Such leadership will lead others to Christ. To do this calls for humility. A humble priest listens attentively to others in the faith community. How he responds speaks loudly. Many apologies will be spoken by the pope, the hierarchy & the clergy. Such words are necessary, but reconciliation requires more. It requires action. In this effort, priests can play their part by serving well the faithful entrusted to their care. We are invited to recognize anew that a truly humble priest powerful influences others, no matter in what condition the Church finds itself. 5. Centering Our Lives around the Eucharist: The Eucharist brings the cross of Christ to our altars & into our lives. Today’s priest must carry this cross. He must do so while some people reject & ridicule him or wonder why he remains a priest. He must maintain his hope when projections are heaped on him by those who are frustrated & hurt. Amidst such reactions, the priest receives a powerful reminder from Jesus’ words: “No servant is greater that his master. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you” (Jn 15:20). This reminder comes every time a priest celebrates the Eucharist. Then he remembers how Jesus was rejected. The Eucharist offers a priest the opportunity to recall that resurrection happened after Jesus carried his cross, and that the joy of new life emerged from death. This memory gives us confidence that the Holy Spirit will strengthen us & eventually transform evil into good, despair into new hope & sorrow into joy. 6. Our eternal Home: In the challenges facing priests, we do well to reaffirm joyfully our belief that we do not have here a lasting home; instead, we wait for one to come. The crisis in the Church tells us that evil exists. The faithful priest is a counter symbol, reflecting the goodness of human nature. He witnesses that living a good life is possible & that all the secular pleasures & goods of this world cannot satisfy the deepest urgings of the human heart. Such fulfillment comes only in joyful union with Christ here on earth & in eternal blessedness in heaven. As we come to grips with what is happening around us, let us approach our ministry with enthusiasm, joy & hope. May Mary the Mother of God, who face the ultimate tragedy of Jesus’ suffering & death with hope, inspire us. May her life of faithful service give us the strength to maintain a positive attitude toward our priestly ministries as we move forward on our priestly journeys.

Perpetual Adoration is an angelic service, an act of profound faith and fervent love toward the Most Holy Eucharist. It draws priceless blessings on mankind for time and eternity. It is a special satisfaction to the Divine Heart of Jesus, a great comfort to the Church Suffering in Purgatory, a source of strength to the Church Militant on earth, and a cause of joy to the Church Triumphant in Heaven. Those, indeed, perform a most God-pleasing work who by their charitable contributions make it possible for Perpetual Adoration to flourish.

Christmas Toy Drive

It’s time to start gathering those toys and gift cards for our annual toy drive. Our goal is 1,000 toys. This year we are also asking for bicycle sponsors of $100. This will allow us to purchase a bike and helmet. We can buy the bike or you can go pick one out yourself. We are looking for gifts from toddlers to teens up to 17 years old. For the older kids, how about a gift card?

If you can’t make it to the store, we will do your toy shopping. Drop your monetary donations off to the rectory to the attention of Norm Ouellette or Cliff Wirtz. You can drop toys off at the rectory or the Hall on Monday and Saturday night Bingo.

The Giving Tree will be up the weekend of December 1st. Please take an ornament from the Giving Tree & bring the unwrapped gift to the rectory by Sunday, Dec. 16th

Toys will be distributed this year along with the Christmas food on Wednesday, December 19th at Christian Services, located in the rear of the rectory. For more information call Cliff at 805-208-8970. Your generosity in the past has been wonderful and we hope to have another fantastic year for the children.

Neglect is a common form of abuse

Neglect is a common form of abuse

Neglect is the most common form of child abuse. It is the failure to meet a child’s basic needs, including housing, food, clothing, education, safety and access to health care. Neglect is most often characterized by acts of omission that aren’t easy to see. The signs of neglect are wide and varied, and may include: failure to develop and grow appropriately, or malnourishment, among infants; wearing inadequate clothing for the weather; and children who seem to be wholly responsible for the welfare of their siblings. If you know that any type of abuse is occurring, or if a child discloses to you, it is important to communicate these concerns to the appropriate authorities. Call your local law enforcement or child protective services department to report suspected abuse of any kind. ¿Sabía Usted?

La negligencia es sinónimo de abuso

La negligencia es la forma más común de abuso infantil. Es la incapacidad de satisfacer las necesidades básicas de un niño, incluyendo la vivienda, la alimentación, la vestimenta, la educación, la seguridad y el acceso al cuidado de salud. La negligencia se caracteriza más a menudo por actos de omisión que no son fáciles de “ver”, no es como el abuso físico, donde normalmente hay evidencia de marcas físicas. Los signos de negligencia son amplios y variados, y pueden incluir: falta de desarrollo y crecimiento físico adecuado o malnutrición entre los lactantes; vestir a los niños con ropa inadecuada para el clima; y niños que parecen estar a cargo del cuidado de sus hermanos. Si usted sabe que está ocurriendo cualquier tipo de abuso, o si un niño se lo revela a usted, es importante comunicar sus preocupaciones a las autoridades correspondientes. Llame al departamento de policía o al departamento de protección de menores para reportar sospechas de abuso de cualquier tipo.
