Dear friends,

Today we honor all mothers everywhere. This is for all the mothers who have sat up all night with sick toddlers in their arms, saying, “It’s okay, honey, Mommy’s here”; for mothers who have sat in rocking chairs for hours on end, soothing crying babies with colic, who can’t be comforted.

This is for all mothers who show up at work with cheerios in their hair, milk stains on their blouses and diapers in their purses; for all the mothers who run carpools and make cookies and sew Halloween costumes. And for those who DON’T.

This for the mothers whose priceless art collections of macaroni and colored crayons are hanging on their refrigerator doors, and for all the mothers who froze on metal bleachers at football and soccer games instead of watching from the warmth of their cars, so that when their kids asked them, “Did you see me, Mom?” they could say, “Of course. I wouldn’t have missed it for the world.”

This is for all the mothers who sat down with their children and explained all about the birds and bees. And for those mothers who wanted to, but just couldn’t find the words.

This is for all the mothers who go hungry so that their children can eat. And for all the mothers who read “Goodnight, Moon” twice a night for a year and then read it again, “Just one more time.”

This is for all the mothers who taught their children to tie their shoelaces before they started school and for all the mothers who opted for Velcro.

This is for all the mothers who teach their sons to cook and clean and their daughters the jump shot.

This is for every mother whose head turns automatically when a little voice calls “Mom?” in a crowd, even though they know their own offspring are at home, at work, or even away for college.

This is for all the mothers who sent their kids to school with stomachaches assuring them they’d be just FINE once they got there, only to get calls from the school nurse an hour later asking them to please pick them up right away. For all mothers who bite their lips until they bleed when their 14-year olds dye their hair green. This is for mothers who children have gone astray, who can’t find the words to reach them.

For all mothers of victims of school shootings, and the mothers of those who did the shooting. For the mothers of survivors, and the mothers who sat in front of their TVs in horror, hugging their child who just came home from school safely. And for all mothers who have lost children through sickness or accidents.

This is for the mothers who gave birth to babies they’ll never see, and for the mothers who took those babies and gave them homes.

This is for all who wanted to be mothers but their hopes were not or have not been fulfilled; and for all step-mothers who raised another woman’s child or children, and gave their time, attention and love—sometimes totally unappreciated!

This is for all mothers who taught their children to be peaceful, and now pray they come home safely from a war.

Today we honor all these mothers and wish them a Happy Mother’s day and May God bless you—we certainly do!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

“Helping Build Up the Domestic Church”

The term “Domestic Church” refers to the family, the smallest body of gathered believers in Christ. The Greek word ecclesiola referred to “little church.” Our Early Church Fathers understood that the home is the best place to learn how to practice discipleship, sanctification, and holiness. Are you and your family saints in training in your own “little church”? Your answer should be YES! Visit the Office of Faith Formation for more information on training to be saints!

“What does it take to become a saint? Will it.”

CATHOLIC FAITH FACTS

Do you ever wonder why we believe the things we believe in as Catholics? Are you tired of being asked questions about your Catholic faith from loved ones, friends or co-workers - and NOT being able to give an answer? If this sounds like you – please consider joining the Catholic Faith Facts Apologetics Course here at St. Rose of Lima. You will learn how to give Biblical answers for your faith as well as the corresponding references from the Catechism. You will gain a clearer understanding about subjects like the Mass, defending Marian doctrines, the Eucharist, Purgatory, Confession, statues and images, praying to the saints, and many more. Join us on Wednesdays in room 9 of the school at 7:00pm. Bring a family member or a friend with you who may have questions about a particular topic we are discussing. As the Body of Christ, our Catholic faith is a family journey – so don’t try to walk it alone and uninformed! Call Sandy Lemos at 805 915-4621 or visit our page on the Parish website to see the topics covered in previous classes: https://strosesv.com/ff-apologetics-class

Gracious and Loving God,
Help these young men and women to be a light for all the world to see, in all the places they live and work.
Let their light shine for all peoples: for their families, for their church communities, for their cultures and societies, for the economic and political systems, for the whole world.

Coming into the room where the disciples were gathered after the resurrection, Jesus, said: “Peace be with you!” (Jn 20:21).

Make these men and women bearers of Christ’s peace.

“Blessed are the peacemakers, teach them the meaning of what was said on the mountain: for they shall be called sons and daughters of God” (cf. Mt 5:9).

Send them, Father, as you sent your son: to free their brothers and sisters from fear and sin.
We ask this of you, in Christ’s name. Amen.

DID YOU KNOW?

In today’s society, parents are often torn between protecting their children, and letting them experience life and even make mistakes. Safety is vitally important, but there is value in learning from experience and from mistakes, too. There may be times when parents wonder if they have gone too far in their efforts to safeguard children, perhaps inadvertently rendering them children less prepared to handle real-life situations. For help in discerning when learning from experience may be appropriate see the VIRTUS® article “Safety vs. Resilience in Childhood.” For more information, visit http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx

¿Estás buscando ayuda de una terapeuta católica?

¿Sabía Usted?

En la sociedad actual, los padres de familia a menudo tienen que decidir entre proteger a sus hijos y dejar que ellos experimenten la vida e incluso cometan errores. La seguridad es de vital importancia, pero también es valioso aprender de la experiencia y de los errores. Pueden existir ocasiones en que los padres de familia se pregunten si han ido demasiado lejos en sus esfuerzos de proteger a los niños, seguramente sin desear que sus hijos estén menos preparados para manejar situaciones de la vida real. Para obtener ayuda para discernir cuándo puede ser apropiado aprender de la experiencia, consulte el artículo VIRTUS® “Safety vs. Resilience in Childhood” (Seguridad versus resiliencia en la infancia).
