Pentecost is often called "the birthday of the Church." On this day, with the descent of the Holy Spirit, Christ's mission is completed, and the New Covenant is inaugurated. It's interesting to note that St. Peter, the first pope, was already the leader and spokesman for the Apostles on Pentecost Sunday (see Acts 2:14ff).

Join us for Fr. Gregorio Farewell next Sunday, June 16th at 9:00 am Mass. Refreshments to follow on the patio right after the Mass.

To get ahead today, you have to be a jerk, right?

Divisive politicians. Screaming heads on television. Angry campus activists. Twitter trolls. Today in America, there is an “outrage industrial complex” that prospers by setting American against American.

Meanwhile, one in six Americans have stopped talking to close friends and family members over politics. Millions are organizing their social lives and curating their news and information to avoid hearing viewpoints differing from their own. Ideological polarization is at higher levels than at any time since the Civil War.

America has developed a “culture of contempt”—a habit of seeing people who disagree with us not as merely incorrect or misguided, but as worthless. Maybe you dislike it—more than nine out of ten Americans say they are tired of how divided we have become as a country. But hey, either you play along, or you’ll be left behind, right?

Wrong.

In Love Your Enemies, New York Times bestselling author and social scientist Arthur C. Brooks shows that treating others with contempt and out-outraging the other side is not a formula for lasting success. Blending cutting-edge behavioral research, ancient wisdom, and a decade of experience leading one of America’s top policy think tanks, Love Your Enemies offers a new way to lead based not on attacking others, but on bridging national divides and mending personal relationships.

Brooks’ prescriptions are unconventional. To bring America together, he argues, we shouldn’t try to agree more. There is no need for mushy moderation, because disagreement is the secret to excellence. Civility and tolerance shouldn’t be our goals, because they are hopelessly low standards. And our feelings toward our foes are irrelevant; what matters is how we choose to act.

Love Your Enemies is not just a guide to being a better person. It offers a clear strategy for victory for a new generation of leaders. It is a rallying cry for people hoping for a new era of American progress. And most of all, it is a roadmap to arrive at the happiness that comes when we choose to love one another, despite our differences.

Ironically, what the Author of this recently published book, titled, Love Your Enemies, by Arthur C. Brooks, (who has written eleven other books, and New York Times best selling author, and currently on the faculty of the Harvard Kennedy School and Harvard Business School is this) : Love Your Enemies, ( the book’s title),-- God The Father, Son and Holy Spirit, has been trying to teach us humanity that Lesson for over the past 2000 years. and we still have not learned that basic lesson of living in the World, together, with each other.

The book is now available on Amazon. -- Perhaps we could use this book as part of an ongoing “book of the month club” discussion .It’s a good read. Let me know!

Helping Build Up the Domestic Church

The term “Domestic Church” refers to the family, the smallest body of gathered believers in Christ. The Greek word ecclesiola referred to “little church.” Our Early Church Fathers understood that the home is the best place to learn how to practice discipleship, sanctification, and holiness. Are you and your family saints in training in your own “little church”? Your answer should be YES! Visit the Office of Faith Formation for more information on training to be saints!

“What does it take to become a saint? Will it.”
Saint Thomas Aquinas

Baptismal Formation Team
in English Needed

We are currently forming an English speaking Baptismal Team to assist the solitary couple now serving this vital ministry. Are you willing to sacrifice 5 or 6 hours a month to help hand on the faith you love to the next generation? Please prayerfully consider joining our Baptism Preparation Team. You meet with parents and godparents one Monday a month and attend Baptisms one Sunday a month. You will receive all necessary formation and everything you need to serve in this ministry. Do not be afraid! Contact the Office of Faith Formation for more information, 805.915.4621.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion Needed

Have you ever considered becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion? We are “Extraordinary” only because we are not the “Ordinary” Ministers of Holy Communion (the Priests and Deacons). Pope Paul VI stated that the Mass is the “most perfect form of prayer” – and there is no greater way for a layperson to experience it than through the privilege of distributing our Lord to our fellow Catholics. Contrary to what some may think — this is not a lifelong commitment. There is no ordination, no contract, nor will you be expected to serve at a mass that you don’t normally attend. You can serve at the Mass that you normally attend and will be scheduled for that Mass 1-2 months at a time. We also have periodic volunteer call outs for Holy Days, First Communions and special events.

If you are interested in this enriching and rewarding ministry – please complete the “New Minister Survey” on the parish website that can be found here: https://strosesv.com/eucharistic-ministers. You will find the Survey at the bottom left of the page. Please prayerfully consider joining today!

Bible Study

James: Pearls for Wise Living

James is one of the most practical books of the Bible. Its teachings speak loudly to those who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and their faith.

This study offers “pearls for wise living” by applying the wisdom of James to our current day. For anyone who has struggled to live a truly Christian life, James offers a wealth of practical solutions for handling and even sanctifying everyday circumstances.

Join us for James:

Pearls for Wise Living here at St. Rose of Lima School in room 8 beginning Thursday, April 25th at 7:00pm and continuing through Thursday, July 11th. For more information or to register for the study, call Dr. Neil Fanning at 805-217-4300 or via email: fanning@pacbell.net

Our Mission is to strengthen the lives of young adults through Catholic community, faith formation, and service opportunities.

Please contact (805) 526-8181 Email: ya@strosesv.com to become involved.

Gracious and Loving God,
Help these young men and women to be a light for all the world to see, in all the places they live and work.
Let their light shine for all peoples: for their families, for their church communities, for their cultures and societies, for the economic and political systems, for the whole world.

Coming into the room where the disciples were gathered after the resurrection, Jesus said: “Peace be with you!” (Jn 20:21).

Make these men and women bearers of Christ’s peace. "Blessed are the peacemakers, teach them the meaning of what was said on the mountain: for they shall be called sons and daughters of God" (cf. Mt 5:9).

Send them, Father, as you sent your son: to free their brothers and sisters from fear and sin.
We ask this of you, in Christ’s name. Amen.

Know when words are warning signs

Some predators will use comments and conversations to groom potential victims. Be on guard any time an adult is talking to a child about sex, no matter how they’re presenting it (hygiene, reproduction, etc.). Physical flattery can be another red flag — predators sometimes try to make children feel good about themselves by commenting on their physical appearance. Algunos depredadores usarán comentarios y conversaciones para preparar a las posibles víctimas. Manténgase alerta en cualquier momento en que un adulto esté hablando con un niño sobre sexo, independientemente del área que se esté tratando en la conversación (higiene, reproducción, etc.). La adulación física puede ser otro banderazo de alerta; los depredadores a veces intentan hacer que los niños se sientan bien consigo mismos al comentar sobre su apariencia física.
