Occasionally the Celebrant may change.
Dear friends,

We look forward to gather as a family this coming Thursday, August 23 at the 5:00pm Mass on the Feast of our Patroness St. Rose of Lima to thank God for all His marvelous blessings through her intercession followed by a BBQ on the school’s grounds. In addition we will welcome back all our school families, especially the new families to our school and parish.

There will also be video about some of the things that happened in our parish last year, honoring some of our special volunteers with the Golden Rose Awards, and then an outdoor family movie. So, be sure to bring your beach chairs and blankets to sit on the grass for a good old family picnic and drive-in (OK a sit-in!!) theater.

I just ask you to call the rectory so we can “guess-timate” how much food and drink to purchase.

May God bless you—I certainly do! Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

BECOMING CATHOLIC
We invite all adults interested in becoming Catholic: anyone unbaptized, those baptized in another faith tradition who would like to become Catholic and those baptized Catholic who need both the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, to join us on a Journey of Faith in the Catholic Church through the R.C.I.A. BUILDING THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

WHILE STRENGTHENING OUR PARISH

The term “Domestic Church” refers to the family, the smallest body of gathered believers in Christ. The Greek word ecclesia referred to “little church.” Our Early Church Fathers understood that the home is the best place to learn how to practice discipleship, sanctification, and holiness. Are you and your family saints in training in your own “little church”? Your answer should be YES! Visit the Office of Faith Formation for more information on training to be saints!

DID YOU KNOW?

Learn how to help children suffering from trauma

With mass shootings, natural disasters, and the social climate today, our children are living in a world that can be very scary at times. Children who have suffered from trauma, through abuse, loss, or another tragedy, may have different ways of viewing the world through the distorted lens of their fears and worries, and often need the help of trusted adults to guide them through their emotions. Many children use denial as their first coping method, so getting them to talk about what’s happened and explore how they’re feeling and what scares them now is important. Consider consulting someone with expertise in child development—a psychologist, counselor or experienced teacher might have suggestions as to how best to support a child in the aftermath of a frightening experience.

¿Sabía Usted?
Vigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
18 de agosto de 2019

Jesús aceptó la cruz, sin temer su ignominia, y por eso está sentado a la derecha del trono de Dios.

— Hebreos 12:2

Con los tiroteos en masa, los desastres naturales y el clima social de hoy, nuestros niños viven en un mundo que a veces puede ser muy aterrador. Los niños que han sufrido trauma, abuso, pérdida o tragedia pueden tener diferentes formas de ver el mundo a través de la distorsionada realidad de sus temores y preocupaciones. Por esta razón, estos niños con frecuencia necesitan la ayuda de adultos de confianza que los guíen a través de sus emociones. Muchos niños usan la negación como su primer método de afrontamiento, por lo que es importante que hablen sobre lo que sucedió y exploren cómo se sienten y qué les asusta ahora. Considere la posibilidad de consultar a alguien con experiencia en desarrollo infantil. Un psicólogo, un consejero o un maestro experimentado podría tener sugerencias sobre la mejor manera de ayudar a un niño después de una experiencia aterradora.
