Director of Religious Education
Pauline has been a parishioner at St. Rose for 23 years. She has been a catechist for 20 years, having taught Confirmation for at least 12 of those years. You might know her if you have ever attended Alpha, St. Rose Bible studies, Catholic Faith Facts, or Financial Peace University. Pauline also was on the panel of speakers at the Prescription Drug Addiction seminar this past February. Most recently, Pauline has been a Core team member with Youth Ministry for the past 2 years and has assisted with our Christian Service ministry. Pauline brings a love of evangelization with her in her new ministry as Director of Religious Education as well as a professional background in management. She asks that you keep her in your prayers as she works toward “training a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.”

MOTHER CABRINI CIRCLE GIFT SHOP
Located in the vestibule; open before & after morning Masses and Thursdays 12-3pm
Dear friends,

As we begin Respect Life Month, I thought it would be good for us to review the Church’s constant—from the beginning until now—teaching about the sacredness of life at every stage—from conception to natural death.

From earliest times, Christians sharply distinguished themselves from surrounding pagan cultures by rejecting abortion and infanticide. The earliest widely used documents of Christian teaching and practice after the New Testament in the 1st and 2nd centuries, the Didache (Teaching of the Twelve Apostles) and Letter of Barnabas, condemned both practices, as did early regional and particular Church councils.

To be sure, knowledge of human embryology was very limited until recent times. Many Christian thinkers accepted the biological theories of their time, based on the writings of Aristotle (4th century BC) and other philosophers. Aristotle assumed a process was needed over time to turn the matter from a woman's womb into a being that could receive a specifically human form or soul. The active formative power for this process was thought to come entirely from the man—the existence of the human ovum (egg), like so much of basic biology, was unknown.

However, such mistaken biological theories never changed the Church’s common conviction that abortion is gravely wrong at every stage. At the very least, early abortion was seen as attacking a being with a human destiny, being prepared by God to receive an immortal soul (cf. Jeremiah 1:5: "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you").

In the 5th century AD this rejection of abortion at every stage was affirmed by the great bishop-theologian St. Augustine. He knew of theories about the human soul not being present until some weeks into pregnancy. Because he used the Greek Septuagint translation of the Old Testament, he also thought the ancient Israelites had imposed a more severe penalty for accidentally causing a miscarriage if the fetus was "fully formed" (Exodus 21: 22-23), language not found in any known Hebrew version of this passage. But he also held that human knowledge of biology was very limited, and he wisely warned against misusing such theories to risk committing homicide. He added that God has the power to make up all human deficiencies or lack of development in the Resurrection, so we cannot assume that the earliest aborted children will be excluded from enjoying eternal life with God.

In the 13th century, St. Thomas Aquinas made extensive use of Aristotle's thought, including his theory that the rational human soul is not present in the first few weeks of pregnancy. But he also rejected abortion as gravely wrong at every stage, observing that it is a sin "against nature" to reject God's gift of a new life.

During these centuries, theories derived from Aristotle and others influenced the grading of penalties for abortion in Church law. Some canonical penalties were more severe for a direct abortion after the stage when the human soul was thought to be present. However, abortion at all stages continued to be seen as a grave moral evil.

From the 13th to 19th centuries, some theologians speculated about rare and difficult cases where they thought an abortion before "formation" or "ensoulment" might be morally justified. But these theories were discussed and then always rejected, as the Church refined and reaffirmed its understanding of abortion as an intrinsically evil act that can never be morally right.

In 1827, with the discovery of the human ovum, the mistaken biology of Aristotle was discredited. Scientists increasingly understood that the union of sperm and egg at conception produces a new living being that is distinct from both mother and father. Modern genetics demonstrated that this individual is, at the outset, distinctively human, with the inherent and active potential to mature into a human fetus, infant, child and adult. From 1869 onward the obsolete distinction between the "ensouled" and "unensouled" fetus was permanently removed from canon law on abortion.

Secular laws against abortion were being reformed at the same time and in the same way, based on secular medical experts' realization that "no other doctrine appears to be consonant with reason or physiology but that which admits the embryo to possess vitality from the very moment of conception" (American Medical Association, Report on Criminal Abortion, 1871).

Thus modern science has not changed the Church's constant teaching against abortion, but has underscored how important and reasonable it is, by confirming that the life of each individual of the human species begins with the earliest embryo.

Given the scientific fact that a human life begins at conception, the only moral norm needed to understand the Church's opposition to abortion is the principle that each and every human life has inherent dignity, and thus must be treated with the respect due to a human person. This is the foundation for the Church's social doctrine, including its teachings on war, the use of capital punishment, euthanasia, health care, poverty and immigration. Conversely, to claim that some live human beings do not deserve respect or should not be treated as "persons" (based on changeable factors such as age, condition, location, or lack of mental or physical abilities) is to deny the very idea of inherent human rights. Such a claim undermines respect for the lives of many vulnerable people before and after birth.

Brothers and sisters, there are many Catholics and other people who do not know this truth about the sacredness of life at every stage and the evil of abortion. Please get informed. Know the truth; live the truth; and stand up for the truth. May God bless you.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

MORNING BIBLE STUDY

Join us for a new morning Bible Study at a private home. We will study, James: Pearls for Wise Living. James is one of the most practical books of the Bible. Its teachings speak loudly to those who feel torn between the competing demands of this world and their faith.

Time: 10:00am. Study ends on Nov. 20th

For more information, location or to register for the study, call Judy Folster at 805-206-1957 or via email at Jfolster@sbcglobal.net

EVENING BIBLE STUDY

Galatians: “What must we do to be saved?”

This is the most important question a Christian can ask. Paul’s letter to the Galatians provides the answer and reveals the merciful love God the Father has for his children. The Galatians:

- Set Free to Live study speaks of the extraordinary gift of salvation Jesus has won for us and explains how we can unite ourselves to Christ’s redeeming sacrifice through faith and love.
- This 8-session program starts on Thursday, Sept. 12th and goes through Oct. 31st.
- It is presented by Jeff Cavins who explains how Christ fulfilled the Law and set us free to live in the Spirit.
- Learn what “justification” means and how faith and works are an integral part of it.
- Discover how we become heirs to the promises and blessings of Christ through faith.

This study will be held at St. Rose of Lima School in room 8 at 7pm on Thursday evenings.

For more information or to register for the upcoming bible study, call Dr. Neil Fanning at 805-217-4300 or via email: fanning@pacbell.net

R.C.I.A. Rite of Acceptance and Welcoming

Sunday, October 20, 2019, 9:00 AM Mass

Next Sunday, October 20th, at the 9 AM Mass, we celebrate the Rite of Acceptance and Welcoming with those seeking to join our Catholic Faith Community. Assembling publicly for the first time, our new Catechumens (unbaptized) and Candidates (baptized Catholic or in another denomination) have completed the Inquiry phase of their journey and now declare their intention to join the Church, and the Church in turn, carrying out its apostolic mission, accepts them as persons who intend to become its members. They now enter into a deeper level of study, prayer and spiritual growth.

As the Body of Christ, please pray for our Catechumens and Candidates. May the Holy Spirit guide them as they continue their “Journey of Faith” to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil Celebration.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion Needed

Have you ever considered becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion? We are “Extraordinary” only because we are not the “Ordinary” Ministers of Holy Communion (the Priests and Deacons). Pope Paul VI stated that the Mass is the “most perfect form of prayer” — and there is no greater way for a layperson to experience it than through the privilege of distributing our Lord to our fellow Catholics. Contrary to what some may think — this is not a lifelong commitment. There is no ordination, no contract, nor will you be expected to serve at a Mass that you don’t normally attend. You can serve at the Mass that you normally attend and will be scheduled for that Mass 1-2 months at a time. We also have periodic volunteer call outs for Holy Days, First Communions and special events. If you are interested in this enriching and rewarding ministry — please complete the “New Minister Survey” on the parish website that can be found here: https://strosesv.com/eucharistic-ministers. You will find the Survey at the bottom left of the page.

DID YOU KNOW?

Know who is most vulnerable to abuse

All children are vulnerable to potential sexual abuse, but predators look for situations and circumstances to manipulate that may make some children more susceptible than others. Many studies show that a higher percentage of young girls are vulnerable to sexual abuse than young males. Child abuse is a societal problem, and we must be aware of signs that indicate vulnerability or potentially troubling circumstances – inappropriate relationships between an adult and a young child, a child demonstrating signs of abuse by his or her behavior. All children are our responsibility.

¿Sabia Usted?

Todos los niños son vulnerables a posibles abusos sexuales, pero los depredadores buscan situaciones y circunstancias para manipular el entorno y hacer que algunos niños sean más susceptibles que otros. Muchos estudios demuestran que un mayor porcentaje de niñas jóvenes son más vulnerables al abuso sexual que los hombres jóvenes. El abuso infantil es un problema de la sociedad, por lo que debemos estar conscientes de los signos que indican vulnerabilidad o circunstancias potencialmente problemáticas, como relaciones inapropiadas entre un adulto y un niño pequeño, o con un/a niño/a que muestra signos de abuso por su comportamiento. Todos los niños son nuestra responsabilidad.
