Saturday Masses and Thursdays 12-3 pm
Dear friends,

There’s a wonderful story of a man who was hunting in Africa. Leaving the camp one morning, the man hiked alone for several miles into the jungle where he surprised and eventually bagged several wild crane. Buckling his catch to his belt, he headed back to camp.

At a point, however, he sensed that he was being followed. Momentarily frightened, he stopped and looked around himself. And following him at a distance was a naked, and obviously starved, adolescent boy. Upon seeing the boy and his hunger and his need, the man stopped, unbuckled his belt, and letting the cranes fall to the ground, backed off and gestured to the boy that he could take the birds.

The boy ran up to the birds but, inexplicably, refused to pick them up. He, seemingly, was still asking for something. Perplexed, the man tried with words and gestures to explain to the boy that he could take the birds. Still the boy refused to pick them up.

Finally, in desperation, unable to explain what he still needed, the boy backed off from the dead birds and stood with outstretched and open arms… waiting until the man came and placed the birds in his hands. He had, despite hunger, fear, and intense need, refused to take the birds; he waited until they were given to him. Only then did he make off with them.

To be a saint is never to take anything as owed, but rather, to receive everything, gratefully, as gift and to be thankful. The quality of giving effects the quality of receiving and the quality of receiving directly affects the quality of giving. Happy Thanksgiving!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

CATHOLIC FAITH FACTS

When it comes to the Sacrifice of the Mass, non-Catholics will ask the question, “If the sacrifice was offered “once for all by Christ” (Hebrews 9:26-28), why do Catholics offer the same sacrifice at every Mass – especially since the Father has already accepted it? Another charge is that we re-sacrifice Jesus at every mass. This is simply a misunderstanding of the sacrifice of the Mass. Rev. 13:8 says that Christ was crucified before the foundation of the world. His is an eternal sacrifice before the Father. In God's eyes, Jesus is crucified before the foundation of the world and is ever present as a sacrifice before him. Jesus never stops mediating on our behalf.

Revelation 5:6 says, “And I saw between the throne (with the four living creatures) and the elders a Lamb standing, as if slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.” In 1 Corinthians 11:27-29, Paul speaks to the reality of the Eucharist and the severity of the consequences to those who take this lightly: “Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will have to answer for the body and blood of the Lord. A person should examine himself, and so eat the bread and drink the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself.” This directly correlates to the Bread of Life discourse in John 6, where Jesus stated in no uncertain terms: “Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day.” The word Mass comes from the Latin, Missa, which means “to send”, “to go forth”, “to dismiss” Because the Mass represents the finished work of Christ for our very redemption, it is the ultimate prayer of the Church and the Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith (CCC 1324). Many of the prayers and blessings in the Mass come directly from the Bible (Matt. 28: 19, 2 Cor. 1: 2 & 13: 13, Psalms 51:6, James 5:16, 1 John 1:19, Luke 2: 14, Rom. 8:34, John 1: 28, Eph 5:20, Rev 7:12, Gen 1, Col. 1:16, Heb 1:3, 1 Cor. 15:34, 2 Tim. 4:1, Mark 9:24, John 11: 27, Mark 9:38, John 17:9 & 20, Phil. 2:4, Chron. 29:10, Psalms 72:18-19,119:10, Luke 1:68, Matt. 5: 23 -24, Matt. 28:26-28, Mark 14:22-25, Isa. 6: 3, Rev 4:8, Mark 14:22,24, Matt. 26: 26 -28, Luke 22: 19 – 20: 1 Cor. 11:23- 25). To deny the sacrifice of the Mass is to deny the eternal sacrifice of our Lord on our behalf. For more information, please visit us at http://www.strosesv.com/faith-facts.

DID YOU KNOW?

"If you see something, say something"

"If you see something, say something". We see this warning in airports and schools, but experts say it’s also a great way for parents to think about Internet safety for their children. One of the best ways to protect children using the Internet is to actually engage with them in what they’re doing: Play the games they plan, check out their profile pages with them. Discuss online respect and rules for what can and cannot be shared. Regular conversation and monitoring helps keep children safe online.

St. Rose of Lima participates every other Saturday evening at The United Methodist Church and each Sunday evening at the Knights of Columbus.

All homeless people that participate in the PADS program are drug and alcohol free and are registered with the Samaritan Center in Simi Valley.

*Service hours are granted for your time.

Time to pay it forward and help your fellow man and woman! We are in need of volunteers to help set-up, clean-up, cook, serve dinners and breakfasts and to be night chaperones. The Winter Shelter Program runs from 7 pm - 7 am. It is a safe and fulfilling way to give back to those in need. Training is provided.

Please contact:

Robert Hacker (805) 558-9018 - for Saturday nights

Rick Ostrich (805) 501-8818 - for Sunday nights

Thank you and God Bless!

“Si ves algo, di algo”
Vemos esta advertencia en aeropuertos y escuelas, pero los expertos dicen que también es una excelente manera para que los padres de familia piensen en la seguridad de Internet para sus hijos. Una de las mejores formas de proteger a los niños que usan Internet es participar realmente en lo que están haciendo: jugar los juegos que planean, revisar junto con ellos sus páginas de perfil. Discuta sobre el respeto en línea y las reglas para lo que puede y no puede ser compartido. La conversación y el monitoreo regulares ayudan a mantener a los niños seguros en línea.
