Family Prayer Around the Advent Wreath
Fourth Week (Purple candle.)
In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
(Light all the candles)

Blessed are you, O Lord our God, king of the universe. You sent your Son to be the Light of the world and to spread his light of love to all. Bless us and this wreath of light made from our hands. May their ever increasing brightness be a sign to us of the approaching nearness of your Son, that we might prepare in joy for his humble birth in a manger and be ready to receive him at his coming again in glory. We ask this through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Dear friends,

One of my favorite Christmas stories is about the old shoe cobbler who dreamed one Christmas Eve that Jesus would come to visit him the next day. The dream was so real that he was convinced it would come true.

So the next morning he got up and went out and cut green boughs and decorated his little cobbler shop and got all ready for Jesus to come and visit. He was so sure that Jesus was going to come that he just sat down and waited for Him.

The hours passed and Jesus didn’t come. But an old man came. He came inside for a moment to get warm out of the winter cold. As the cobbler talked with him he noticed the holes in the old man’s shoes, so he reached up on the shelf and got him a new pair of shoes. He made sure they fit, and that his socks were dry, and sent him on his way.

Still he waited. But Jesus didn’t come. An old woman came. A woman who hadn’t had a decent meal in two days. They sat and visited for a while, and then he prepared some food for her to eat. He gave her a nourishing meal and sent her on her way.

Then he sat down again to wait for Jesus. But Jesus still didn’t come.

Then he heard a little boy crying out in front of his shop. He went out and talked with the boy, and discovered that the boy had been separated from his parents and didn’t know how to get home. So he put on his coat, took the boy by the hand and led him home.

When he came back to his little shoe shop it was almost dark and the streets were emptied of people. And then in a moment of despair he lifted his voice to heaven and said, “Oh Lord Jesus, why didn’t you come?”

And then in a moment of silence he seemed to hear a voice saying, “Oh shoe cobbler, lift up your heart. I kept my word. Three times I knocked at your friendly door. Three times my shadow fell across your floor. I was the man with the bruised feet. I was the woman you gave to eat. I was the boy on the homeless street.”

Jesus had come. The cobbler just didn’t realize it.

Jesus comes in unexpected ways and in unexpected places. Brothers and sisters, don’t miss Him! Merry Christmas to you and all your loved ones!

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Shea

IN STEP WITH THE SPIRIT
A six week study on the Holy Spirit will be offered to anyone interested in learning more about the third person of the Holy Trinity. We will learn how to be led by Spirit, keep in step with Him, be sensitive to his voice, listen for his commands, heed His warnings, and follow closely after Him. The study will include: The person and work of the Holy Spirit; the secret of bearing fruit, the gifts of the Holy Spirit, quenching and grieving the Holy Spirit, growing in the fruit of the Spirit, serving in the Spirit, and the power to overcome. It will begin, God willing, on Wednesday, January 8 until February 12 in a private home, from 10am to 12pm. Please come and invite a friend. For more information, location or to register for the study, call Dr. Neil Fanning at 805-217-4300 or via email: fanning@pacbell.net

Are you welcome to join us even if we have started already.

The book of Job tells the story of a righteous man who is overwhelmed by suffering and complains to God until God comes to speak with him. In an age where suffering was seen as a sign of punishment for sin, Job's suffering is doubled when all his friends impugn his character as they witness his sorrows. Listen to God's Word in the midst of pain. For enrollment and to secure a study set for Job call Dr. Neil Fanning: 805-217-4300. Study is held at St. Rose of Lima School in room 8 at 7pm on Thursday evenings. For more info call Dr. Neil Fanning at 805-217-4300 or via email: fanning@pacbell.net

You are in full communion with the Catholic Church?

If you are still in need of the Sacrament of Confirmation we will be offering sessions starting January for twelve weeks, culminating in receiving the Sacrament on May 29, 2020 at 5:30 p.m. If you are 18 years of age or older, and God has impressed upon your heart that you need to continue your faith journey, please contact Pauline Simpson at dre@strosesv.com or call the office of Faith Formation at 805-526-5513. Come and join us on this very special journey of faith.

Are you tired of being asked questions about your Catholic faith from loved ones, friends or co-workers - and NOT being able to give an answer? If this sounds like you – please consider joining the Catholic Faith Facts Apologetics Course here at St. Rose of Lima. You will learn how to give Biblical answers for your faith as well as the corresponding references from the Catechism. You will gain a clearer understanding about subjects like the Mass, defending Marian doctrines, the Eucharist, Purgatory, praying to the saints, and many more. Classes are in room 8 at 7:00pm. We will be meeting on the 2nd Wednesday of each month.

DID YOU KNOW?

What constitutes a concern worth reporting?

Parents have a responsibility to report concerns they have about another person’s behaviors or actions that could put their children — or any children — at risk. These concerns are anything that makes the parent uneasy or uncomfortable, or anything that a child reports made them feel uneasy or uncomfortable. Some examples of seemingly little things that can be worth reporting include: A teacher covering her glass classroom door with artwork, eliminating the ability to see into the classroom from the hall; a youth ministry icebreaker activity, where teens have to pass a mint candy from person to person using only toothpicks in their mouth, despite the discomfort of some participants.

¿Sabía Usted?
¿Qué constituye una preocupación que vale la pena reportar?
Los padres de familia tienen la responsabilidad de reportar las inquietudes que tengan sobre los comportamientos o las acciones de otra persona que pudieran poner en riesgo a sus hijos, o a cualquier niño. Estas inquietudes son cualquier cosa que haga que el padre o la madre se sienta incómodo/a, o cualquier cosa que el/la niño/a reporte que le haga sentir incómodo/a. Algunos ejemplos de cosas aparentemente pequeñas que pueden valer la pena informar incluyen: Una maestra que cubre la puerta de vidrio de su aula con obras de arte, eliminar la posibilidad de ver hacia adentro del aula desde el pasillo. Además, una actividad para romper el hielo en el ministerio juvenil, donde los adolescentes deben pasar un caramelo de menta de persona a persona usando solo palillos de dientes en la boca, a pesar de la incomodidad de algunos participantes.
