Opening Procession:

- The cross leads the opening procession.
- When you reach the front, pause and wait for the candle bearers to line up with you.
- The cross leads the candle bearers over to the holders.
- Make sure that the crucifix is facing the front.
- When crossing altar, stop midway and bow to the altar.
- Stand beside Father and hold the book when asked (book stays on Father's table).
- Sit beside credence table.

During Offertory:

- Set the altar with adult server (place chalices, water cruet and book on the altar)

Recessional:

- After the closing prayer, go to the cross, making sure that you stop midway and bow to the altar
- Move as a group with the candle bearers to the aisle and line up facing the altar (try to get there before the children come for their bulletins)
- Once Father is in line and bows to altar, turn and lead the procession out
