Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
'what credit is that to you?'

;then your reward will be great...these are words we long to hear from our Merciful Father, that we would go home with Him. So how can it be possible to hear what Jesus is telling us today?

Stop Judging, stop condemning, forgive and be forgiven seems a tall order, and in fact it is a difficult task for anyone who has no hope for a life beyond this earthly one. While we are able to, that is while we are on this earth we are called to holiness (wholeness). A whole life encompasses not just taking care of ourselves and our families, but the whole world. The skills needed for holiness are all found in Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and no where else. It is definitely not found in our opinions of how others are living but in our forgiveness of how others treat us. If you give mercy and forgiveness it will be given to you by the only person who matters. Not only given to you but in good measure. This shaken down and overflowing mercy will be more than enough for you, your family and the whole world if only we would begin so that He may pour His mercy out for the whole world.

That is a credit score worth monitoring every night as we prepare for sleep. Look back on the day and recount all the people we encountered, all the situations we were in. Was I kind, merciful and forgiving? If we fall short we ask God for forgiveness and for help to do better the next day. He clears the slate and we are given the opportunity to improve. This is the Good News Jesus is telling us today.

The Lord is kind and merciful
El Señor es compasivo
y misericordioso.

¿Qué crédito es eso para ti?

; entonces tu recompensa será grande ... estas son palabras que anhelamos escuchar de nuestro Padre Misericordioso, que iremos a casa con Él. Entonces, ¿cómo puede ser posible escuchar lo que Jesús nos está diciendo hoy? Dejar de juzgar, dejar de condenar, perdonar y ser perdonado parece una tarea difícil, y de hecho es una tarea difícil para cualquiera que no tenga esperanza de una vida más allá de esta terrenal. Mientras podamos, es decir, mientras estamos en esta tierra, estamos llamados a la santidad (totalidad). Toda una vida abarca no solo cuidarnos a nosotros mismos y a nuestras familias, sino al mundo entero. Las habilidades necesarias para la santidad se encuentran en Nuestro Señor y Salvador Jesucristo y en ninguna otra parte. Definitivamente no se encuentra en nuestras opiniones de cómo viven los demás, sino en nuestro perdón de cómo nos tratan los demás. Si das misericordia y perdón, te lo dará la única persona que importa. No solo entregado a ti sino en buena medida. Esta misericordia agobiada y desbordada será más que suficiente para usted, su familia y el mundo entero, si tan solo empezáramos para que El pueda derramar Su misericordia para todo el mundo. Ese es un puntaje de crédito que vale la pena monitorear cada noche mientras nos preparamos para dormir. Mire hacia atrás en el día y cuente todas las personas con las que nos encontramos, todas las situaciones en las que nos encontramos. ¿Fui amable, compasivo y perdonador? Si nos quedamos cortos, le pedimos a Dios perdón y ayuda para mejorar al día siguiente. Él limpia la pizarra y se nos da la oportunidad de mejorar. Esta es la Buena Nueva que Jesús nos está diciendo hoy.

A meeting in solidarity, humility, and penitence

"If one member suffers, all the members suffer together" (1 Cor 12:26)
 "Faced with widespread and growing discomfort following new reports and revelations of very serious cases of sexual abuse involving members of the clergy, on September 12, 2018, at the end of one of the meetings of the Council of Cardinals it was announced that the Holy Father had decided to call a meeting in the Vatican for February 21-24, 2019. The meeting would be a broad approach to the theme 'The Protection of Minors in the Church.'
 This is certainly a first meeting of its kind, yet it is also clearly part of the process of solidarity that Pope Francis is keen to have at the heart of his plan to reform the Church. Faced with a problem that shows itself more and more present and serious in different geographical areas of the world and of the Catholic Church, the pope has ordered the highest representatives of the different ecclesial communities to give a united response at the universal level. The entire Church must choose to live in solidarity, above all with the victims, with their families and with the ecclesial communities wounded by the scandals. As the pope has written, 'If one member suffers, all the members suffer together' (1 Cor 12:26), and the commitment to protect minors has to be taken on clearly and effectively by the entire community, starting with those in the highest positions of responsibility. Speaking of sexual abuse by members of the clergy is painful and unpleasant. Sometimes, even in Church circles, one hears that it is time to change the subject, that it is not right to give too much weight to this theme, for it is becoming oppressive and overblown. But that would be the wrong road to take. If the problem is not fully confronted in all its aspects, the Church will continue to find itself facing one crisis after another, her credibility and that of all priests will remain seriously wounded, but above all, what will suffer will be the substance of her mission to proclaim the gospel and her educational work for children and young people, which for centuries has been one of the most beautiful and precious aspects of her service for humanity."

Please add to your prayers this week: For the Council of Cardinals meeting for the Protection of Minors, that they be lead by the Holy Spirits to actions that will begin the healing process for victims, healing, understanding and mercy for members of the universal church and her clergy.
