Weekly Reflection ~ June 5th
10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Paul was a very observant Jew. He followed all the laws with zeal. His beliefs led him to persecute the Christians—after all they were heretics in his mind. It was not until the Lord appeared to him that he came to understand that salvation could not be earned—it is a gift from the Lord given to all. From that time on he dedicated himself to spreading this good news to everyone. How do you spread this good news to others?

by ST. PAUL

“You changed my mourning into dancing; O Lord, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

Psalm 30:13

A gift for Fr. Wayne

We are creating a 12x12 memory book for Fr. Wayne. If we could ask each family to create a page to include it will become a beautiful farewell gift! Your page can be simple or elaborate. You could include photos or favorite memories, favorite scripture, words of thanks, words of encouragement, children’s creations, or anything you can imagine! There are free supplies and samples in the church office if you need them. If you have any questions or need anything at all please call or text Becca Edmiston (979) 732-1710
