Weekly Reflection ~April 28
2nd Sunday of Easter

Even the disciples, who knew Jesus personally, had doubts and fears. They did not know what to do. They had failed him in so many ways. Still, Jesus did not abandoned them. He came to them. He did not ask what had happened to them—where they had been, etc. His first words were, "Peace be with you." And then he entrusted them to carry on his mission! He knew their weaknesses and so he also gave the Holy Spirit to help and guide them in their mission. Jesus extends his peace to us everyday and has given us the Spirit to help us. Each day give thanks for these gifts and pray for the grace to receive and use them well.

St. John Vianney Relic in Austin

The incorrupt heart of St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, is touring the United States for veneration this year, thanks to the Knights of Columbus, and will be at St. Mary's Cathedral in Austin May 15-16. (His incorrupt body is encased above a side altar church where he was pastor, St. Sixtus in Ars, France.) There will be a Mass associated with the visit of the heart of the patron saint of priests at 7:30pm on Wednesday, May 15, at St. Mary's Cathedral, 203 East Tenth Street, Austin. St. John Vianney, pray for us
