Weekly Reflection ~May 19
5th Sunday of Easter

Jesus was very clear about what was required of anyone who would be his disciple: They must love one another. His life was the example of love. Caring for others, forgiving others, encouraging them to be the best they could be. This is how Jesus loves you too. Do you believe he really loves you and forgives you? Does that belief affect how you treat others? How we love others is proof of our discipleship. What kind of disciple are you?

“Such as my love has been for you, must your love be for each other.”

SILENCE INSIDE THE CHURCH

Always keep in mind that the church building is a consecrated house for the worship of Almighty God and the presence of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Let us maintain a holy and reverential silence throughout our time inside the church building, including immediately after Mass, with the exhortation of the hymn, “Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silent,” issuing the reminder. “Let all mortal flesh keep silent, and with fear and trembling stand. Ponder nothing earthly minded, for with blessing in His hand. Christ our God to earth descending, our full homage to demand.”
