*Weekly Reflection ~ June 23
Corpus Christi Sunday*

We constantly hear about the importance of a balanced diet and the benefits of eating proper foods. Our spiritual development also requires nourishment. There are many resources available to us: the Scriptures, spiritual books, people who are experienced in the spiritual life, and the Eucharist. Do you take time to nourish your spirit? Do you value the gift of the Eucharist? Do you stop to reflect on what it means to receive the Eucharist? Do you stop to reflect on what it means to receive the Eucharist? Do you use other resources to nourish and deepen your faith? Consider your spiritual "diet" and how you might improve it.

LITURGICAL YEAR CONTINUES

With last weekends Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, the Church enters the longest stretch of the Liturgical Year. It may comprise 24 to 28 weeks (24 weeks in 2019) and differs from considerably from the other liturgical seasons. In the Liturgical Year there is a historical progression, beginning in Advent with the waiting for the coming of the Messiah, followed by His birth at Christmas. During the Sundays after Epiphany, the Holy Childhood is commemorated, while during Lent we are reminded of the fasting in the desert and the Passion of our Lord. The sacred cycle is completed at Eastertide, when we celebrate the Resurrection and Ascension of our Lord and the Descent of the Holy Ghost upon the Apostles. In the last part of the ecclesiastical year, the Church, guided by the Holy Ghost, continues to work of the Redemption, realized during the proceeding part of the Liturgical Year. As the Lord Jesus said, "The Holy Ghost, Whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you all things, and bring all things to your mind whatsoever I shall have said to you." (John 14:26) This last part of the Liturgical Year is filled with feasts of major importance: those of the Blessed Trinity, Corpus Christi, the Sacred Heart, the Assumption (August 15) and the Nativity (September 8) of our Lady, Christ the King, All Saints (November 1) and All Souls (November 2)
