All Saints Day & All Souls Day

Sometimes a little clarification between these two days can be helpful for us as Catholic Christians to celebrate the two days respectfully...

All Saints is a Holy Day of Obligation. It's a celebration of the communion of saints, those people we believe are in heaven, through good works and God's grace. It's a day when we are called to live as saints, to remind us how we're supposed to live. All Souls' Day is a day to pray for all the faithfully departed. Among Catholics, prayers are offered for those in purgatory, who are waiting to get into heaven. We pray for God's mercy on these souls and that they may enter heaven, through Christ.

*Weekly Reflection ~ October 27
30th Sunday of Ordinary Time*

We can always find someone to compare ourselves with so that we feel righteous and superior. The problem is that this is an illusion. As soon as we find ourselves thinking, "Thank God, I'm not like that!" we have failed before God. We have passed judgement on another and for the worst of all reasons: to raise up ourselves. We all have our weaknesses and we all need God's grace and Mercy.

"S.T. Productions"

"The Lord is close to the brokenhearted; and those who are crushed in spirit He saves."

Psalms 34:18
