

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church Religious Education Interactive Video Call Permission Form

2020-2021

During this year of religious formation, your child may have the opportunity to experience distance learning via interactive video calls. Interactive video call sessions enable the children to see, hear and speak to one of our catechists who will help review important learning material and provide opportunities for group prayer & faith-based activities. In order for your child to participate, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church requires your written permission and an adult presence in the room with your child during each video session. Please mail or email this completed form to your catechist or to the religious formation office before your child's first video session.
