FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

Tuesday, August 20 St. Bernard, Doctor of the Church, Abbot of the Cistercian monastery of Clairvaux. He was a reformer and spiritual author.

Adviser of popes, preacher of the Second Crusade, defender of the faith, healer of a schism, reformer of a monastic Order, Scripture scholar, theologian, and eloquent preacher: any one of these titles would distinguish an ordinary man. Yet Bernard was all of these—and he still retained a burning desire to return to the hidden monastic life of his younger days.

He preached against the Albigensians and founded sixty-eight monasteries. He denounced injustice and worked for peace. He died in 1153 and is the patron of Gibraltar.

Wednesday, August 21 St. Pope Pius X undertook liturgical and canonical reforms especially communion for children and frequent communion for adults. He condemned Modernism in two encyclicals and wished to renew all things in Christ. He died August 20, 1914 and is the patron of sick pilgrims.

Thursday, August 22 The Queenship of Mary This memorial prescribed in 1954 by Pope Pius XII is celebrated on the octave day of the Assumption. Mary's queenship has roots in Scripture. Her queenship is a share in Jesus' kingship. We can also recall that in the Old Testament the Queen was the mother of the king and had great influence in court.

Friday, August 23 St. Rose of Lima Born in 1586 in Lima, Peru to Spanish colonists, and named Isabel Flores de Olivia, she was exceptionally beautiful. Her beauty was so great that she was nicknamed "Rose," a name that remains with her to this day. She lived a life of penance and solitude, caring for the homeless, elderly, and sick. She died at age thirty-one in 1617 and is the patroness of the New World, the Philippines and of South America, especially Peru; also of florists and gardeners.

Saturday, August 24 St. Bartholomew, Apostle

(Also known as Nathaniel in John's gospel). He was said to have preached the gospel in India and Armenia where, according to tradition, he was martyred.
