FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

August 25 – St. Louis was born in 1214 and became king of France when was only twelve years old. His mother, Blanche of Castile, ruled the kingdom as regent until he reached maturity. He married and became the father of eleven children who received from him careful instruction for a Christian life. He excelled in penance and prayer and in his love for the poor. While ruling his kingdom he had regard not only for peace among peoples and for the temporal good of his subjects but also for their spiritual welfare. He undertook the Crusades to recover the tomb of Christ and died near Carthage in 1270. He is the patron saint of France.

August 27 – St Monica was born of a Christian family at Tagaste in Africa in 331. While still a young maiden she was married to Patricius. They had children, among whom was Augustine. She poured forth many tears and prayers to God for his conversion. A model of the virtuous mother, she nourished the faith by her prayers and witnessed to it by her deeds. She died at Ostia in 387. She is the patron saint of wives and abuse victims.

– St Augustine was born at Tagaste in Africa in 354. He was unsettled and restlessly searched for the truth until he was converted to the Faith at Milan and baptized by St. Ambrose. Returning to his homeland, he embraced an ascetic life and subsequently was elected bishop of Hippo. For thirty-four years he guided his flock, instructing it with sermons and many writings. He fought bravely against the errors of his time and explained the Faith carefully and cogently through his writings. He died in 430. He is the patron saint of brewers.

August 29 – This day commemorates the martyrdom by beheading of Saint John the Baptist on the orders of Herod Antipas at the request of his step-daughter Salome, who was urged on by her mother Herodias. The story can be found in all three synoptic gospels.
