Weekly Message from Deacon Rob on the Readings for Ordinary Time

To many people, the adverse calamities that mankind endures and the apparent success of the liar, cheater, perverse and self-centered individual begs the question of the existence of a Divine Creator who is a loving and caring God. Despite the eventual victory of the good promised in Scripture, the faith by the believer is constantly challenged and a subtle but ever-present doubt by the faithful arises. Today’s Scripture, found in the Liturgy of the Word, assuages that nagging inclination to doubt the existence of God and the eventual triumph of good. God affirms that His faithfulness is never-ending and that we only have to remain steadfast. The virtue of Perseverance in faith, a total trusting in the Divine and honoring of Him, is mandated for growth and spiritual development. It is faith that answers human doubt. Amazingly, the smallest amount of faith will suffice for God to work His wonders.

In the first reading from the Book of the Prophet Habakkuk, the prophet accuses God of not listening to the prophet’s pleas. The destruction of Habakkuk’s world by the powerful and the increased prosperity by the immoral and deceitful only serves to support Habakkuk’s claims. God, however, answers with a vision of what is to come. The fruition of the vision is to be awaited patiently by those displaying faith while the rash will be left to their own devices of folly, hubris and corruption. In short, the Divine action desired will come but in its own optimum time.

It is this same perseverance in faith that is addressed in the second reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to Timothy. The early Christians were expecting the return of Jesus in the Parousia. They were constantly being tested by the authorities and persecuted. These conditions naturally challenged their faith. The Apostle to the Gentiles, Paul, reminds Timothy, the Bishop of Ephesus, that he must remain strong in his faith. Writing from prison and awaiting his own execution, Paul counsels Timothy and encourages him to draw upon the Holy Spirit for needed strength. The disciple urges Timothy to be steadfast in his faith. Paul explains that through hardships, God tempers the individuals he has placed in authority, making them capable of witnessing to the Gospel of Christ.

Finally, in the Gospel of Luke, Jesus’ apostles feel the need to ask Christ to increase their faith. Fully aware of the depth of Christ’s faith in the Father, the apostles, themselves, feel inadequate. They have witnessed the power that faith brings through the various miracles Jesus has performed as well as the nearness to God. Recognizing their inadequacies and their desire, Jesus answers with the Mustard Seed parable. This parable has several facets to it some of which go unnoticed.

The Mustard Seed is a unique plant that is used by Christ to explain and prophesize the spread of the Gospel and the growth of the Church. The Middle-Eastern variety is believed to be the smallest and yet it grows into shrubbery/trees up to 25 feet tall. They are located near rivers and in moist soil producing leaves and fruits consumed by the desert animals and people. Their branches offer a haven to the birds of the air (often times used by Jesus as symbols of evil creatures who eat the seed sown by the farmers). In addition, a tree offers shade, comfort and nourishment to humans. In fact, the ancient Jews believed that the universe was created and expanded from a point no bigger than a mustard seed. Thus, the mustard seed symbolized humility and growth, an attributes Jesus demands of his followers. Christ is showing in this parable how his followers, even if their faith is as minute as a mustard seed, will be able to accomplish great things. He encourages them to do what is commanded of them and that will produce the effects they desire despite the evil in the world.

Holy Mother the Church wishes to remind us that our faith, no matter how small it may be, is capable of carrying the Gospel’s message to the ends of the world. It is a Catholic faith – a universal faith. It is faith that offers solace and refuge to the distressed men and women of the world. Once rooted, the Divine Message grows at its own rate and in its own time. Christians, baptized in Christ, need only to perform their own God-given task for the Church to grow. Their faith, no matter how deep, suffices and grows as long as they place their life in the Hands of God. Jesus, Himself, continues to live in our world through us. He is the Word, the Mustard Seed, that will spread God’s Will throughout all of creation.

God planted a seed of faith in our hearts. All we have to do is water it with prayers, fertilize it with His Word and cultivate it with lots of love.

SAINT OF THE WEEK:
ST. JOHN XXIII
OCTOBER 11
Born in northern Italy in 1881, Angelo Roncalli joined the Franciscan Order and was ordained at age 23. He served as a stretcher-bearer for the Italian army in WWI. This experience led him to becoming a papal diplomat and he helped save 24,000 Jews during WWII.
At age 77, he was elected pope, taking the name of John, performing his duties seriously and with a wit that soon became proverbial. He met with political and religious leaders, enlarged the membership of cardinals and opened the Second Vatican Council. He said the Spouse of Christ prefers to make use of the medicine of mercy, not severity. He promoted new ecumenical dialogue with Protestants and Orthodox Christians as well as Jews and Muslims.
