

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, Heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One; you alone are the Lord.
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God, the Father. Amen.

Annual Collection for Needy in Goliad
The ministerial alliance has cancelled the Thanksgiving Ecumenical Service this year. But you can still give a donation to help those in our midst in the basket in the Church provided on Sunday, November 29th. All monies will be given to the alliance to help those in need throughout the year. Thank you.

Year of the Family - Pray, Eat, Play
This week take time to pray together, possibly the rosary as a family. Take turns with each person leading a prayer. Make time to eat a meal together and try to turn off the television and share the meal focused on each other. And make some time to play a game or do some time of recreation outside together. All of course, social distancing!

Month of All Souls: Necrology Book
During these months of the pandemic I put together a necrology book of all the deceased recorded in our funeral register from 1855 to present. I arranged them chronologically by date. The book will be located in the church throughout the year, to pray daily for those who have died.

COVID- 19 NEWS
The Bishop ended the bodily dispensation from the Sunday obligation on October 1, 2020. He encourages those still concerned about returning to make a good judgment for their individual/family health and safety as to return or not; especially those with underlying conditions, and those who feel they may have been exposed. I will update on any protocol changes for attendance as I get them. If you do come for Mass, remember to wear a mask (masks are available at entrance) and stay six feet apart. Hand sanitizer is throughout the church.

The Nicene Creed
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A Prayer for Vocations
Loving and gracious God, Father of all, you bless your people in every time and season and provide for their needs through your providential care. Your church is continually in need of priests, sisters, and brothers to serve you and one another. Open the hearts of your sons and daughters to listen to your call in their lives. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
