DO NOT FEAR

You may not know of Stanley Francis Rother unless you happen to live in Oklahoma. Born there to a farming family in 1935, young Stan recognized a calling to the priesthood in his teens. After five years in the seminary he was told he was not studious enough to continue. Fortunately, his bishop believed the best priests were not always the most intellectual, but the most committed. He enrolled the young man at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary in Maryland. Stanley studied diligently and was ordained in 1963. After five years in parish work in Oklahoma, Father Rother volunteered for the Oklahoma diocesan mission among the Tzutuhil, a Mayan people of the western Guatemala highlands. Father Rother, a strong, hard-working man, ministered to the ordinary spiritual needs of the people while learning the Tzutuhil language and translating scriptures and Mass prayers into Tzutuhil. He helped the people learn to read and write, while a mission radio station transmitted daily language and math lessons. He built a small hospital and worked on plans to improve roads. Guatemalan political power was in the hands of right-wing elites, who also controlled the military. They blamed the Church for "civil unrest" and supporting the rights of the poor. Father Rother was urged to leave and went to Oklahoma for a short visit, but he insisted on returning even though he was a marked man. In 1981 the mission radio station was smashed and its director killed. Catechists and parishioners were beaten, tortured, and killed. Father Rother stayed because he believed Jesus' words, "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul" (Matthew 10:28). He was shot by a death squad in the night. His body was returned to Oklahoma, but at the request of the Tzutuhil people, his heart was returned to be buried where he served and died.

Reflection FEAR NOT

How do people find hope in the face of suffering and death? That is the question addressed by today's scriptures. We hear of the suffering of Jeremiah and the psalmist. We hear of the death that "reigned from Adam to Moses" (Romans 5:14). We hear of the fears of the Twelve as Jesus sends them out into the world to preach and heal.

Through all this tribulation one message rings out loud and clear—"Do not be afraid!" The God who saved Jeremiah and the psalmist and Jesus is fully present to save us through the gracious gift of Jesus Christ. We have nothing and no one to fear.
