

Becoming Attentive Travelers

Jesus, on the road to Jerusalem, passes through the town of Jericho. His intention was to move right through, yet when he catches sight of Zacchaeus, he stops and changes plans. Jesus was on the move, yet not so obsessed with plans and objectives that he didn't notice the needy soul of Zacchaeus peering down upon him from a sycamore tree.

Part of being an apostle of Christ is having a heart that's always attuned to the inspirations of the Holy Spirit. We can't be so consumed with our good fortunes that we miss opportunities to offer Christ's salvation to those around us.

Zacchaeus was a public sinner and a publican who, as we know, were the hated tax collectors and collaborators of the Romans. Rather than a person to visit he was, for the Jews, someone to be avoided. Not for Jesus! Our Lord came to seek and save the lost. And Zacchaeus wanted to be found. He was so driven to see Jesus, he made himself look ridiculous by climbing a tree, admitting to his short stature and curiosity.

How many souls along our path are showing their unquenchable thirst to discover Jesus and, even more, to be discovered by him. While amassing worldly riches, they realize that their deep hunger can only be satisfied by something else. Only spiritual things can satiate the Spirit. Let's be willing to go off-road and facilitate these encounters with Jesus—of course, after we ourselves have been encountered by him.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

Let's defend the defenders of our common home!

The native Amazonian peoples have probably never been so threatened on their own lands as they are now.”- Pope Francis, Peru, January 2018.

This is true for Indigenous peoples, but also for traditional communities of the Amazon. Here are two communities in Brazil under threat:

•The way of life of Machadinho d'Oeste's seringueiros (artisanal rubber tappers) is being destroyed by industrial logging.

- The Mura Indigenous people of Manaus were not consulted before a phosphate mining company began operations on their lands.

Sign the Development and Peace - Caritas Canada Solidarity Letter today to support these two communities.

Your signatures will allow us to call for their protection and respect of their rights.

Together, let's defend the defenders of the Amazon. To sign the Solidarity Letter online: devp.org/act

Teen Challenge is a one year faith-based residential drug and alcohol rehabilitation program for men ages 18 and over . A team from Teen Challenge will be here at our parish SUNDAY November 17th at the 11am mass and after mass.

Teen challenge students will share stories of addiction, recovery and restoration with their families. Bring a friend and be inspired by a message of hope and God's power to change lives!
 There will be an offering taken up on that day to assist with their good work.

Every moment comes to you pregnant with a divine purpose; time being so precious that God deals it out only second by second. Once it leaves your hands and your power to do with it as you please, it plunges into eternity, to remain forever whatever you made it.

Helping Newcomers in our Community

“We cannot be indifferent to the tragedy of old and new forms of poverty, to the bleak isolation, contempt and discrimination experienced by those who do not belong to ‘our group,’” Francis said.

“We cannot remain insensitive, our hearts deadened, before the misery of so many innocent people. We must not fail to weep. We must not fail to respond.” Pope Francis

Sault Ste. Marie is continuing to welcome new families who have had to flee war in their home countries. They are currently displaced in countries of refuge where they are unwelcome and receive little if any support. The Refugee Assistance Program (R.A.P) at the Sault Community Career Centre (SCCC) provides settlement assistance to government-sponsored refugees. Brenda Cooper is a volunteer who coordinates other volunteers to walk with the newcomer families and help them adjust to the new and bewildering culture they find in Canada. One of our volunteers, Murray Clark, expressed his experiences and feelings about volunteering with newcomers in an online article. Please check it out at <https://www.sootoday.com/helpers/working-with-newcomers-has-done-away-with-notion-of-them-and-us-for-local-volunteer-1721687>

Love then by its nature is social. Its greatest happiness is to gird its loins and serve the banquet of life. Its greatest unhappiness is to be denied the joy of sacrifice for others. That is why in the face of pain, love seeks to unburden the sufferer and take his pain, and that is why in the face of sin, love seeks to atone for the injustice of him who sinned.

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen a champion for life, encouraged people to spiritually adopt a child in the womb and pray for that child for 9 months. "It is said that although the identity of the child you pray for will be unknown to you during your earthly life, there is hope that you will be united to that child forever in Heaven".

To answer this call, there are slips at the entrance of the church on which to write the chosen name of your baby for whom you will be praying. A Mass for these babies will take place in December. "
