The Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mentors Needed for Refugee Students

Catholic Charities is seeking volunteer mentors for refugee students. Volunteers will have the opportunity to help these students reach their academic goals while participating in a cultural exchange. Don't miss out on this great opportunity to be a positive role model and encourage a child's academic achievement. To learn more or to volunteer, contact Katie Norton at knorton@archlou.org or (502) 636-9263.

Sisters of Mercy Celebrate 150 Years of Ministry in the Archdiocese of Louisville

The Sisters of Mercy of the Americas invite you to a celebration of the 150th anniversary of their arrival in Louisville, Ky on October 2, 1869. A Mass and reception will be held on Sunday, September 29, 11:00 a.m. at Good Shepherd Church, 3511 Rudd Avenue. Please RSVP for the reception following the Mass in Lehmann Hall on the campus, including number of attendees, by September 20, 2019 to 502-493-3750.

Wanted! The fish fry is looking for crock pots that you might be willing to part with. If you have one that is collecting dust on your shelf and would like to donate it, please leave in the back of church. Thanks so much.

Children's RCIA will begin on Sunday, September 29th at 9:15 am in the Hughes Room. This program is for those that are not baptized and are coming into the church. See Deacon Frank with any questions.

Shroud of Turin Presentation

Interested in learning about the fascinating history of scientific studies of the Shroud of Turin, which has experienced a renaissance of interest in the scientific community? Recent studies have strengthened the authenticity of the Shroud, and Dr. J. Wayne Phillips, M.D. has created a compelling presentation that he wants to share with the Archdiocese of Louisville. Join him on Sunday, October 6, 5:00 p.m. at the Holy Trinity Clifton Campus, 2117 Payne Street. This event, sponsored by Holy Trinity Parish and the Notre Dame Club of Louisville, is free of charge.

We offer our sympathy to the family of Loretta Luckett. Please keep them in your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. May God grant her eternal rest.

Next weekend Fr. Chris Gibson will be with us to talk about Food for the Poor. "Food for the Poor is one of the largest international relief and development organizations in the United States. Our work is motivated by our faith in God, spreading His unconditional love, regardless of race, wealth, or creed as we minister to the poorest of the poor in 17 countries throughout the Caribbean and Latin America. By providing lifesaving food, secure housing, clean water, healthcare, emergency relief, micro-enterprise projects and education opportunities, we are giving the poor a chance at a better future, and showing them God's love." We look forward to Father's visit.

National Migration Celebration

Parishioners are invited to join in solidarity with immigrants and refugees at the National Migration Celebration on Wednesday, September 25, 7:00 p.m. at the Cathedral of the Assumption (433 South Fifth Street). The prayer service will be followed by a reception featuring international food from migrants who have settled in Louisville. For more information, call Julia Ray at Catholic Charities, 502/637-9786 or jray@archlou.org.
