The Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Spotlight on John Paul II Academy:

- In the STREAM Lab we are building marble roller coasters and using Ozobots for coding.
- The week of October 21st is Red Ribbon Week: Stay drug free and healthy!
- We are finishing very successful volleyball and football seasons! Basketball registration has started.
- Seventh and eighth graders are enjoying visits from catholic high school representatives. They have exciting decisions to make!

All men of the parish are invited to join us on our annual retreat at the Jesuit White House Retreat Center in St. Louis. This will be a silent, guided retreat based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. It's a peaceful break from the chaos and confusion of everyday life. It's like a 3-day vacation with Christ on their beautiful 80-acre campus high on the bluffs overlooking the Mississippi River. All meals and private lodging are provided. Our retreat begins the evening of December 5 and concludes December 8. The retreat center operates on a free will offering basis, asking those in attendance to simply give what they feel they can at the conclusion of the retreat. Transportation is provided. There will be a men's breakfast for those interested on Saturday, October 26 at 8:30 am at the University Club. To register call Jerry Zimmerer at 502-216-8381.

Blood Drive

On Tuesday, October 22, 2019, the Center for Interfaith Relations will host a Multifaith Blood Drive at the Cathedral of the Assumption in the Undercroft from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. To sign up, go to www.redcrossblood.org and enter the sponsor code FOFCathedral. All are welcome.

Many, Many Thanks....Bobby Selch and Pat Jarboe would like to thank everyone that donated crock pots to the fish fry. They are greatly appreciated!

Parishioners are invited to "A Day of Recollection: Thomas Merton's Spirituality of Non-Violence," presented by Rev. Adrian Burke, O.S.B. on Saturday, November 2, 9:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Cathedral of the Assumption Undercroft, 433 South 5th Street. Respond to the "demands of charity" as those who represent Christ, the Prince of Peace.

The day includes Mass at 11:15 a.m. (in the Cathedral) and lunch. The event is free, but we request registration by noon on Wednesday, October 30. Please call 502-582-2971. Father Burke is a Benedictine monk of Saint Meinrad Archabbey, serving as a spiritual director for seminarians, a professor of spirituality, and a director of retreats at the Archabbey Guest House as well as for parishes, diocesan groups, and religious communities.

Prison Volunteers Needed

We need women volunteers to lead Women's Communion Services at the Louisville Metro Jail on Friday mornings. A couple of our veterans are retiring. You need to be or to become a mandated Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. (The Worship Office provides training for Eucharistic Ministers.) You also will receive training for other aspects of the ministry. To volunteer or for more information, please contact Deacon Steve Marks, 502-964-6966 or deacon.steve.marks@gmail.com.

Violins of Hope Louisville Event

All are invited to "Repairing the World through Music and Story: An Interfaith Evening of Healing and Hope" on Tuesday, October 22, 2019, from 7:00-8:15 p.m. at the Cathedral of the Assumption in Louisville. This event, which is free of charge, will feature Grammy Award-winning violin virtuoso Johnny Gandelsman. It will be comprised of moving stories, prayers, and inspirational music meant to evoke healing, restoration, peace, and hope. "Violins of Hope" is a touring exhibition providing an opportunity for learning and reflection through restored violins that survived the Holocaust. Twelve of the violins will be on display at this concert and exhibit, which is hosted by the Jewish Federation of Louisville and the Center for Interfaith Relations.
