Spotlight on John Paul II Academy:
We are so thrilled to be sharing this news with you, and so we share it again with trumpets:
• With great joy we share that His Eminence, Timothy Cardinal Dolan, will be traveling to Louisville and visiting the children at John Paul II Academy on March 18.
• We are LOWERING our tuition for next school year! We understand that families work hard and make sacrifices so that their children can receive a catholic education. We are honored to be in partnership with you, and we are tightening our budget and passing along the savings to our Academy families. We also have generous tuition assistance available. Please make an appointment with our principal, Mrs. Conliffe, so that she can help you to provide a catholic education for your children. When we welcome Christ into our classrooms, we can do anything!
