The Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thanks to Healthcare Heroes in the Archdiocese of Louisville

With special gratitude for the heroic efforts of healthcare professionals during the COVID-19 pandemic, Archbishop Kurtz and the St. Joseph Guild of the Catholic Medical Association invite medical professionals to the annual Mass for healthcare professionals (also known as the White Mass) on Sunday, October 3, 5:30 p.m. at the Cathedral of the Assumption (433 South Fifth Street). This Mass is a Catholic liturgy, but a warm invitation is extended to persons of all faiths who serve in the healthcare field.

Invoking the blessing of St. Luke, the patron saint of physicians, this event gathers doctors, dentists, nurses, psychologists, respiratory therapists, physical therapists and all who work in healthcare to ask God's blessing upon those who serve in this profession. Those medical professionals who wear white coats are asked to wear their coats to the Mass.

For those who cannot attend, this event will be live-streamed. Search for Cathedral of the Assumption, Louisville, Ky. on You-Tube.

Congratulations to Jackson Tripp for making Second Honors at DeSales High School!
