Our Holy Father: In his own words

"We need to care for the earth so that it may continue, as God willed, to be a source of life for the entire human family."

Pope Francis

Good Shepherd Sunday Homily by Pope John Paul II
Fourth Sunday of Easter, 20 April 1997

Today, the Fourth Sunday of Easter, "Good Shepherd Sunday"... As I give thanks to the Lord for the gift of the priesthood, dear brothers and sisters, I would like to pause and consider with you what Christ says about the good shepherd.

"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep" (ibid.). How can we fail to see in these words an implicit reference to the mystery of the Lord's Death and Resurrection? "I lay down my life that I may take it again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord, and I have power to take it again" (Jn 10:17-18). Christ freely offered himself on the Cross and rose by virtue of his own divine power. Therefore the allegory of the good shepherd has a strongly paschal character and for this reason the Church proposes it for our reflection during this Easter season.

"I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me, as the Father knows me and I know the Father" (Jn 10:14-15). From the mystery of God's eternal knowledge, from the intimacy of Trinitarian love spring the priesthood and the pastoral mission of Christ, who says: "I lay down my life for the sheep. And I have other sheep, that are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will heed my voice. So there shall be one flock, one shepherd" (Jn 10:15-16). Christ's pastoral mission is a universal mission, which is not limited to the sons and daughters of Israel, but, by virtue of his sacrifice on the Cross, embraces all men and all peoples... May the Blessed Virgin Mary, who beneath the Cross was united to the sacrifice of her Son, and was given to us by him as our Mother, help and protect you with her intercession, so that you may be the faithful image of the Good Shepherd among your brothers and sisters."

Pray for all of our shepherds this Sunday that they will continue to guide us on the journey ahead. -Fr. Pete

Yo soy el Buen Pastor

Hermanos y hermanas en el Señor.

Hoy el evangelista nos acerca la figura de Jesús como un pastor que ama, cuida y protege a sus ovejas y las conoce una en una.

La figura del pastor es tierna, acogedora, cercana. Se preocupa por la oveja que se pierde. A la que por avatares de la vida anda descarriada, la busca, le da su tiempo y al final la atrae hacia el rebaño.

Jesús toma como referencia al pastor que cuando ve en peligro a la oveja, va y le ayuda, no la abandona a su suerte. Quizás nosotros no somos muy conscientes de que Jesús es Buen Pastor, antes la crisis mundial que estamos sufriendo y de forma particular en nuestra tierra porque, como siempre, esperamos que nos vengán a resolver los problemas. Sin embargo, Él como el pastor que ama y quiere a sus ovejas, sabe que Dios nos ha ofrecido un mundo habitable, con lo necesario para todos, pero también nosotros somos corresponsables de que el mundo siga siendo habitable para todos.

Jesús nos llama a todos como supremo Pastor, para que comprendamos que debemos fomentar la hermandad, la unidad, la paz, alejarnos de destruir por destruir o expoliar a los demás para nosotros tener más.

Jesús nos marca el camino a seguir, por donde las ovejas debemos caminar, a pesar de ello, se vuelve y no nos deja perdidos, quizás deje unos momentos a aquellas que saben a dónde van, pero al final reúne al redil completo.

Hace poco hemos celebrado su resurrección, lo hemos visto, hemos creído en Él, ¿seguimos creyendo? ¿Seremos capaces de ser pastores en aquellos sitios donde nos encontramos? ¿Nos exponemos al peligro por salvar a alguien que se aleja del camino? Reflexionemos.

¡Feliz semana para todos!

Fr. Juan Fernando Gámez
