STRENGTH AGAINST TEMPTATION
The first Sunday of the season of Lent always includes a Gospel account of the temptation of the Lord Jesus in the desert by the devil. This year, the story is set against the backdrop of the first reading from Genesis, which recounts the very first temptation by the devil. That story is set in a garden of delight. The Gospel story is set in the desert. As believers, we know that temptation comes our way in our own gardens of delight as well as the deserts of our lives. As Lent begins, our attention is drawn to that temptation within each of us to become like God—we want control, power, and answers to all of life’s difficult questions. As communities of faith, we are given this season of repentance so that we can join our hearts with others on the difficult journey of conversion. We look to God and to one another for strength against temptation.

Dear Parishioners,
We are in the great journey of Lent. 6 quick weeks to prepare for the Greatest of Holy Seasons, Easter. A journey to uncovering the reality of the Salvation of Jesus Christ that exists within us. A journey to experiencing the freedom of Jesus Christ given to all of us. A journey in becoming more and more those Children of God that Jesus revealed we are. So let’s start, not with glum hearts and complaints, but with joy and expectations!

Your Pastor,
Fr. Bob

The McGrath Institute for Church Life at the University of Notre Dame is offering an opportunity to immerse yourself into the saving words of the Scriptures. Due to a generous benefactor, they received the Heritage Edition of the Saint John's Bible during the last year. Their first goal, through the work of Carolyn Pirtle, was to create an online course featuring the Bible for parishes and congregations to use during Lent. The course looks at the role of art in the Christian Life, examines the illuminations of the Bible, and provides guided experiences of lectio and visio divina around the Scriptural texts. They are offering this course gratis during Lent to any interested person.
