Please be mindful of your financial contributions to the church. If at all possible, please do not neglect contributing financially to the church during these troubled times, such as automatic bank draft, by mail or personally delivering them to the office. Our parish cannot operate efficiently without your generous contributions.

Tenga en cuenta sus contribuciones financieras a la iglesia. Si es posible, no deje de contribuir financieramente a la iglesia durante estos tiempos difíciles, como en línea en svdprogers.com, giro bancario automático, por correo o entregándolos personalmente a la oficina. Nuestra parroquia no puede operar eficientemente sin sus generosas contribuciones.

Scripture Insights

We recall in our liturgy Jesus' entry into the holy city, Jerusalem. The excitement of the crowd is evident in the Gospel at the procession as Jesus is welcomed as the Messiah: "Hosanna to the Son of David;/ blessed is he who comes in the name the Lord."

The servant in the First Reading foreshadows Jesus. He speaks God's Word to his people who reject him. Though innocent, he endure sufferings, beatings, and insults. The Lord God sustains him through these persecutions.

Paul's letter to the Philippians quotes an ancient Christian hymn used in worship. It captures beautifully the person of Jesus Christ: Although fully divine, he emptied himself and became fully human to the extent of embracing a disgraceful death on the cross. The Father accepted his obedience by raising him for all to see that "Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the father."

Today's Gospel reading is the passion narrative according to Matthew's account of the Gospel. We hear in graphic detail how Jesus is betrayed, derided, judged, sentences, and finally crucified. His body is taken down and placed in a tomb. Everyone in the story displays some level of fear. The joy of the entry into Jerusalem is replaced by fear. The disciples who celebrated a final meal with Jesus. Pilate was afraid of losing his own power. The Jewish religious leaders, afraid of having their positions of authority undermined, secured Jesus' conviction before Pilate.

In what way does the servant in the First Reading resemble Jesus?

As you prayerfully reflect on the account of the Lord's passion and death, what aspects strike you the most as you begin Holy Week?

How will you participate in the Sacred Paschal Triduum so that it deepens your spiritual life?

Mt 26:14 - 27:66 Then one of the twelve, whose name was Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests and said, "What will you give me if I deliver him over to you?" And they paid him thirty pieces of silver. And from that moment he sought an opportunity to betray him.

EL SENOR ES RECIBIDO EN JERUSALEN

Hoy la Iglesia recuerda la entrada triunfal del Señor en la ciudad santa de Jerusalem.

La gente lo recibio, con palmas en las manos, como el autentico Rey de los judios

Hoy rogamos al Padre del cielo que nos conceda amar y venerar con todo el Corazon a nuestro Redentor, y le pedimos Fortaleza para ser fieles a el en los momentos de prueba.

Jesus entro en la ciudad santa para morir en la cruz, pero el triunfo definitive sera suyo.

How to Pray the TV Mass from Home
Creating a sacred space to reverently watch the Mass in your home

Create a prayer altar under you TV or streaming device. Consider setting a crucifix or other sacred art in the prayer space.

Open your bible to The gospel of the day And place it on your "home altar" to remind you that the Word of God is Among you.

Light a candle to symbolize the beautiful light that shines in the darkness And to help your home resemble The Church

Set up chairs like a Pew to help you engage in the Mass and keep you from passively watching from the couch.

Get dressed as you normally would when Attending Mass. keeping this routine is especially helpful for children.

Open your bible to The gospel of the day And place it on your "home altar" to remind you that the Word of God is Among you.

If you have holy water At home, bless yourself and your family before you begin the Mass.

Take a few moments of silence to transition from the busyness of your home to the sacredness of the Mass

Fully participate By standing, kneeling, sitting and responding according to the rubrics of the Mass

Engage in community By having coffee and Breakfast with your Family after Mass or By calling your Loved ones to Connect
