THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
GOSPEL
MATTHEW
10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles:
"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple-amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

PRACTICE OF FAITH

The practice of hospitality is affirmed throughout Scripture. In today's First Reading, extraordinary blessing is promised for the hospitality extended to Elisha. Jesus' words in the Gospel continue this theme, promising eternal reward to those who extend even the smallest act of hospitality to even the least ones. Through hospitality to even the least ones. Through hospitality, we express our baptismal call and put faith into action. Our practice of hospitality ought not to be limited to strangers and guests but should also be extended to family, friends, neighbors, and coworkers. Take care to extend hospitality to those you encounter each day. Learn more about the Rule of St. Benedict and the practice of hospitality in the Benedictine tradition at this site.

Take time to write in a journal, reflecting on acts of hospitality you've extended and received throughout this week. Give thanks to God for the opportunity to serve Christ in others.

“QUIEN ME RECIBE A MI, RECIBE A QUIEN ME HA ENVIADO”

El Señor hoy nos dice que nadie esta por encima de Dios, y parece recordamos el primer mandamiento de su ley: “Amaras a Dios sobre todas las cosas”.

Si somos cristianos, tenemos que seguir el camino de Jesús. El tomo la cruz mas pesada de todas, y nos pide que llevemos nuestra propia cruz, para sr dignos de el. Solo asís podremos llegar a la resurrección.

Si recibimos a Jesús, estamos recibiendo al Padre, que esta en el cielo. Y quien recibe a alguien que es servidor de Dios es al mismo Señor a quien recibe.

Dice Jesús que quien diere a uno de sus discípulos “aunque no sea mas que un vaso de agua fría”, no se quedara sin recompense.

LA SABIDURIA DE DIOS SUPERA NUESTROS CRITERIOS.
