A Note From a Young, Catholic Mom

Advent is a time of great excitement and anticipation. It is also the perfect opportunity to contemplate how Jesus fits into our lives. DynamicCatholic.com writes, "Jesus came into this world at that first Christmas for you, to bring meaning and deep satisfaction into your life, to fill you with lasting joy, and ultimately to bring you to eternal happiness with him in heaven." What could be better than that?

God brought Jesus into the world out of love for us and we were created, and continue to exist, through that very same love. God is constantly summoning us. Sometimes that summons is through a gentle whisper, and at other times it comes more loudly...the Lord is mysterious like that. He calls us to open our hearts and come into relationship with him ~ the Lord yearns for this and our hearts do too! Regardless of the calling, our ultimate joy and happiness can only be truly, genuinely fulfilled by responding to the Lord, by giving the Lord our "yes" to relationship with him.

"The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God, and God never ceases to draw man to himself. Only in God will he find the truth and happiness he never stops searching for (CCC 27). A few years ago, I gave a "yes" to joining a book club for young, Catholic moms through our parish. That book club, and the series of opportunities I gave my "yes" to afterward, opened my heart and instilled a deep hunger for relationship with the Lord. It's amazing how one yes changed my life.

This Advent season, take time to reflect on your relationship with Christ and, if you haven't already, give Jesus your yes by opening your heart to him. Pray the Lord fills the God-sized hole that is written in your heart, a space that only the Lord can gratify. It is an insatiable hunger that can only be satisfied by entrusting yourself to your Creator...and when you do, be prepared for peace and happiness beyond your wildest dreams. Merry Christmas!

REPENT! THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS NOW!

We encounter John the Baptist and his message of repentance on this Second Sunday of Advent. It is human nature to procrastinate and delay repenting because the second coming of Christ seems to be a far-off event. St. Augustine, the penultimate procrastinator in regard to repentance, is quoted praying to God, "Grant me chastity and continence, but not yet." John the Baptist is saying, "Don't procrastinate. The time for repentance is now!" Why?

In the hymn, "Gather Us In", the fourth verse begins, "Not in the dark of buildings confining, not in some heaven light years away, but here in this space new light is shining; now is the Kingdom, now is the day!" We often think of the Kingdom of God as some place in a galaxy far, far away. Quite to the contrary, in the Gospels, Jesus tells us that the Kingdom of God is all around us. Though our physical eyesight cannot perceive it, by faith, we know that the Kingdom of God is over, around, and through us, NOW! We are just unaware of it or choose to prevent ourselves from seeing it. St. Paul, in his second letter to the Corinthians, writes that as our health declines and we get closer to death "we look not to what is seen but to what is unseen; for what is seen is transitory, but what is unseen is eternal." (2 Cor 4:18). The Kingdom of God is here, right now! This is why in last week's Gospel Jesus tells us, "Be watchful! Be alert!"

The fact that the Kingdom of God is present in the here and now is a hard truth to grasp. As people subject to living in chronological time, our minds find it difficult to think of future events already happening in the present. As St. Peter writes in his second letter, "with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day." The "time" of God's Kingdom is not subject to the rule of years, days, minutes, and seconds in which we live. John the Baptist calls us to repent because the future is happening now. May our Advent be one in which we sharpen our awareness, repent of that which encumbers us, and live fully in the presence of God's Kingdom.

A Note to the Parish ~

Fr. Dave Barrett is on a leave. He is being evaluated as a result of an ongoing medical condition. He will not be participating in public ministry during this time and no date for his return has been determined. We ask that you keep Fr. Dave in your prayers. Those of you wishing to extend your support to Fr. Dave are asked to do so by sending cards or letters to the parish office; we will then forward those on to him. Deacon Bob Wagner will be handling pastoral matters in the WCC. There will be adjustments to our liturgical schedule for the month of December. Until further notice there will be no weekday Masses at St. John's and St. Scholastica and we will work with the Archdiocese to find priests for the weekend Masses at those sites. The 8 am Friday Mass at St. Wenceslaus will be converted to a Word and Communion Service beginning December 15th. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Discipleship Corner

Why is it so important to have a personal relationship with Jesus?

There is much consolation in being able to go to someone who understands our needs and pain and offers us the joy, peace, and hope that comes with knowing we are loved. Jesus teaches us how to live our lives well. Knowing God and what he asks of us seems like a basic premise for a life well lived. ~ Mary

Discernment and Self-honesty: Wisdom from the Benedictines

A Saint John's School of Theology and Seminary Theology Day

The practice of discernment of spirits can increase the self-honesty we need for decision-making in life. Benedictine practices help us to notice and reflect on what moves within ~ imaginings, emotions, inclinations, desires ~ and then to act on that understanding. The Christian tradition of discernment of these inner movements began with the desert tradition, continued with St. Benedict, and was given modern expression by St. Ignatius. The ultimate intention is to grow in loving relationship with God, others, and even to self. Dec. 14th, check-in from 6-6:30 pm and presentation from 6:30-9 pm, Saint Frances Cabrini Church, Minneapolis. Free event. Light refreshments are provided. Registration is required: www.collegevilleMN.com/theologyday, (320) 363-3560 or theologyday@csbsju.edu.

Please drop gently used or new blankets, coats, hats, mittens, or hygiene items (toothpaste, toothbrushes, deodorant, shampoo etc) in the bin located in the back of church through Jan. 19th. Any monetary donations will be used to buy fleece to make additional blankets and/or a cash donation to Sharing and Caring Hands and the Children's Hospital of Minneapolis. We would also be happy to pick up any donations up as well...just call! (952-457-9877). Donations will be accepted through January 19th. Thanks so much for your generosity and God Bless!

Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Elderly religious need your help. The religious pictured here represent more than 32,000 senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests living in the United States. Through prayer, love, and sacrifice, they established Catholic schools, hospitals, and more. Yet years of serving for little or no pay have left a shortage in retirement funding. Your gift helps their religious communities furnish necessities such as medications and nursing care. It also helps ensure younger members can continue the good works of their elders. Please be generous.

“My sister was to be a nun, and I was to be a mother,” says Notre Dame Sister Mary Ann Hanson (foreground), 79, “but God had other plans.” For 61 years, she has joyfully followed those plans. Today, she remains active by visiting the sick and knitting blankets for children rescued from human trafficking.

Roughly 94 percent of donations aid senior religious.
