Our fondest farewell and best wishes to Jim Buckley and Sheila Quigley, affectionately known as Buck and Quig, as they start a new chapter in Montana.

We are thankful for their contribution to St. Anthony's Church over the years and send them our heartfelt prayers and blessings for safe travels, safe arrival and long years on the new adventure that awaits them both.

Carol and Joseph James were married on August 5th, 1961.

They have just celebrated their 60 years of marriage.

We at St. Anthony's wish to send our heartfelt prayers and congratulations for such an accomplishment and example that Carol and Joseph have given us. We give thanks for the many years of their being together and ask God's blessing on their behalf for today and always.

Good News

August 8, 2021

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 1 Kgs 19:4–8; Ephesians 4:30—5:2; John 6:41–51

Live in Love. Now that’s an exhortation that should be easy to follow, because everyone wants to love and to be loved. However, it’s not as easy as it appears. Today’s second reading contains a list of offenses against love: “bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling” (Ephesians 4:31). Even those we should love the most can so annoy us that we lose control and might respond with bitterness or shouting.

Furthermore, this exhortation is difficult because we are told to refrain from such anger toward people we don’t even know or those we don’t like. We are to show kindness toward everyone. How can we ever do this? We might not have the courage or the desire. We are, after all, just weak human beings. True, but we have been “sealed for the day of redemption” with the “holy Spirit of God” (Ephesians 4:30). For the Jewish people, the Spirit of God referred to the dynamic power of God at work in the world. This means that the dynamic power of God is with us to transform us from bitter, angry people to be “imitators of God, as beloved children” (Ephesians 5:1).

Because this is the case, because this transforming power is available to us, why don’t we allow it to transform us and, in so doing, transform our world? Why is the world in such disarray? Why is there so much violence, oppression, and despair? Why are the most vulnerable among us often preyed upon? If we so desperately want to give and receive love, then why don’t we?

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA
