

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

VOL. XLVI NO. 30

JULY 24, 2016

ESSAYS: "HOW MERCY AFFECTS OUR LIVES"

THIRD PLACE WINNER – LAILA JORDAN

"Mercy affects our lives in many ways. Mercy has its own definition. People are also affected by it in how it makes you feel. What if everyone practiced mercy? Mercy has many examples and there are examples to show how it is used. Mercy means forgiving someone of what they have done. Some examples are forgiving someone if they accidentally hurt you. Another example is when you go to confession and God has mercy on your sins. Some ways of people not receiving mercy is if someone lies to you and they're not being completely honest of their apology, then most likely you will not show mercy on them. People can show mercy on others to make them better! When someone has mercy on me I feel many ways. When someone has been merciful on me for my sins, I feel great that I can let go of it. that the feeling won't be dragging me on for what might feel like forever. I also feel like I get another chance at gaining their trust again. One time when I had to show mercy on someone was when they spilled nail polish on my bedspread by accident. She apologized and I forgave her for it. You should forgive people of their sins if they're honest. What if everyone forgive people of their sins if they're honest? What if everyone practiced having mercy on each other, then our world wouldn't be as cruel and bad as it is now. If we all forgive each other rather than fighting, murdering, or bullying we would all have much better lives. The world would be a much better place and we would have each others trust much easier. This may even lead to world peace! In conclusion, having mercy would make our world a better place. We would also have each others trust much easier than we do now. It will also make everyone smile or even make someone's day or life better and brighter for them. Having mercy on each other makes you and the world a much better place to live! Bible Quote: 'The Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against him.' Daniel 9:9."
