

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

My Dear Parishioners:

Well, we all can be very grateful that the storm was not as bad as we feared. Some of Acadiana did experience flooding and wind damage and certainly our prayers are with them.

I spent my time waiting out Barry reading and, I must confess, watching the Hallmark "Christmas in July" movies. Whew, I saw a bunch of them. But, it made me realize how appropriate it was during these past two weeks thinking about Christmas in July. Because I, as Pastor, certainly witnessed that. First of all, we were still able to have Lil' Angels Camp this week despite Barry's effects because of Mel Joubert, the volunteers and parents. Clearly a sign of Christmas in July! I witnessed many Parishioners come to dust, move Church furniture, and help make the Church usable for weekend Masses. Clearly a sign of Christmas in July! I saw our staff, dedicated Deacons and all liturgical ministers show up to serve even during storm conditions. Clearly a sign of Christmas in July! While some did not feel comfortable driving to Mass on Sunday (which is very understandable), some did and seeing people come out in the rain and wind, I saw Christmas in July! Because of the Mayor, Sheriff and Chief of Police with whom I had many conversations before the storm, during the storm and after the storm, I saw Christmas in July!

And finally, on Monday morning after the collection was counted, I saw a sign of Christmas in July again. Thinking that the collection would not be good, I was so edified when I heard the amount. It was just a little below what we normally get. Wow! Thank you, Jesus! Thank you, Parishioners! Now, I don't want to appear greedy, but to those who missed Mass and the giving of your weekly donation last weekend, we will certainly not return the gift if you want to make it up this weekend. ☺

With reliance upon Our Lady Queen of Angels, I remain
In the Lord Jesus,

Rev. Msgr. Keith J. DeRouen
Pastor

Natural Family Planning (NFP) and its relationship to St. John Paul the Great's Theology of the Body/Theology of the Family will be the theme of the workshop presented by Fr. Blake Dubroc. Join us as we end NFP awareness week on Saturday, July 27, 2019 from 9:00am-12:00pm at Immaculata Center, 1408 Carmel Drive, Lafayette. Fr. Dubroc will help participants receive a better understanding of the theology behind NFP, the teachings of the church, and an explanation of the different natural family planning methods. After the presentation, you will have a better understanding of "What is NFP?" as well as how to promote NFP within your parish. The morning is open to all individuals/couples who are interested in becoming an instructor for NFP, DRE in the parish, marriage prep coordinator, Religious Curriculum Administrators, mentor couples, etc. The morning is free; however, we ask that you register through the following link: <https://www.diola.org/theology-of-the-body-for-nfp> or email Kelley Chapman at kchapman@diola.org, as space is limited.
