Principal Report (Marianne Rosemond): Jag-A-Thon is up and running. There have been two staff meetings, staff is continuously working on keeping students safe and mask wearing. Highlighted 8th graders who have been helping out with temperature taking during drop off. New nurse is on site 5 days/week.

Treasurer Report: Balance: $49,292.04; PTO has paid out Tuition Assistance donation, welcoming committee, faculty lunch, playground equipment, and ice cream.

Spiritwear Update: Spiritwear is only online currently. There was a large number of orders for masks. Class shirts will be in this week or early next week. Jagitude shirts have been approved for Monday wear all year, pre-order for additional jagitude apparel beginning 9/9/2020 and possibly in the winter

Current and Upcoming Events:

Ice Cream Sales: buy a card and get 11 ice cream treats (sandwiches and Italian Ice) K-3 will have during morning recess

Playground Equipment: each classroom was supplied their own equipment and bags. Items include baseballs volleyballs hula hoops chalk jump rope- may need donations for supplies to be replenished mid year

Marketing and Jagitude Campaign: Jen Lambert and Cara Hester are phasing out, Jagitude posters are hanging in each classroom-to bring everyone back together-shirts on Mondays, jagitude awards-pawprints for students to be recognized by peers and teachers; weekly highlights in Jagwire and online

Jag-A-thon: First week for donations was really good. Sponsors will be highlighted on Facebook. There will be no jag-a-thon shirts this year. Younger Children in the same household can walk with adult volunteer, Kindergarten is only walking lower lot

Restaurant Fundraising: Will start reaching out to restaurants, goal is one restaurant a month

Box Tops: Digital Submissions-scan receipts, collection of box tops and contest in October, earned $1,600 last year, currently at $200 for this school year

Family Directory: Orders are due on Friday

Mom's Club: Meetings are in the evening this year, outside or in the undercroft, First meeting of the year is 9/9/2020, Second meeting will be 9/23/2020- the topic is "Recognizing and Talking with your kids about Stress and Mental Health" by Tina Moran, Clinical Social Work/Therapist, MSW, LISW-S and Nicole Gibler, MD, Child, Adolescent & Adult Psychiatrist. All meetings are posted on website

Fawn Candy Fundraiser: Working on setting up for this year around the same time as last year.

Mike's Car Wash: Scheduling for end of Oct/Beginning of Nov.

Main Aevent: No gala this year, will be strictly online- looking for gifts, unique items, class art work, pews, Cara is stepping down and looking for a group of people to take over

Other Business:

Welcoming and Teacher Orientation: Kindergarten bags were distributed with Jagitude shirts: included candy, pencils, bubbles, erasers, school info packet, teacher gifts included sanitizer, mask, sharpies, chocolate, wipes, tissues, had boxed lunches for teachers and balloons

Student Incentives: Popsicles and Pizza

- Still intending on doing a pizza lunch-end of trimester
- Gave out popsicles twice-once each week, intend on continuing as weather allows

New Mentor Program: existing family is paired up with a new family to have someone to go to and ask questions, welcome into the school and parish.

Feedback for fundraising this year: Using our creativity with COVID limitations – reminder to link Kroger and Amazon

Playground Duty: Sign-Up Genius only this year – 3-4 volunteers-still no siblings with volunteers

Zoo on the Move: all virtual this year; looking into the possibility of a petting zoo

Fall Family Fun Day/Pumpkins/Movie Night – sell popcorn/drinks
