THE ROSEMOND REPORT

Dear Parents,

This week we begin standardized testing. Testing will last approximately two weeks, at most. All students in Grades 2-7 will take the required ITBS (IOWA Test of Basic Skills) with extra cognitive testing (CogAT) for Grades 2, 5, & 7. Please make sure that your child is in attendance each day, that they have plenty of sleep, and that they eat a good breakfast.

Our students will be praying the Stations of the Cross during Lent, with their class, in church, every other week, at 12:45. You're always welcome to join us. This week our younger grades will begin attending, led by Eighth Grade lectors. (Older Grades are scheduled to attend mass this Friday.) We will rotate weeks, just as we do mass attendance, so that all may participate in one or the other each week.

Thanks again for all the wonderful donations during Catholic Schools Week. The coins and dollars brought in as bingo covers amounted to $1,029.00 for the Retired Religious Fund. We had plenty of books donated and delivered for the Inner-City Health Clinic and markers and crayons donated for St. Francis Seraph too!

Yours in Christ,

Marianne Rosemond
